What Do YOU See?

When you glance at this picture, do you remember that at the first assembly you were sitting next to someone special? You had to resort to lip reading, because you didn't know the words to the school song? You forgot to wear green. You were one of the honored athletes? You seemed to be breathing the same breath of air over and over? You couldn't hear the speaker, or maybe you weren't even at the assembly? Everyone remembers something different—the things which affect him personally.

This picture captures the general air of the event, prompting your memory for the details. This combination of your memory and a picture allow you to recreate events mentally, so that at any time during your life you can look through your annual and clearly remember what happened during the 1964-65 school year.

The simple black images appearing on the division pages are symbolic of the purpose of an annual—to present just enough of an image to suggest an idea, letting your memory fill in the details.

Barb,
I'm glad I got to know you in chorus this year. Be good, and I'll try, too. See you next year - lots of luck
Love ya,
Bev Long

"Why, it's obvious to the casual observer!"

It's Obvious to the Casual Observer That . . .

The Class of '65 has chosen to dedicate its annual to you, Clifford Haugh. Because of your wit, your fairness, and your overwhelming desire to teach us mathematics; we are inclined to overlook the ever-present smudges of chalk dust on your "trousers."

We have humored your fierce battle against social studies classes in hopes that perhaps you will soon discover that social studies entails more than just coloring in coloring books.

We hope that occasionally you will glance through the senior section of this annual and try to remember those of us, who will always remember you.

Sincerely,
The Class of '65

"Well Diane, I suspect that we'll have to start a straight edge collection for you!"

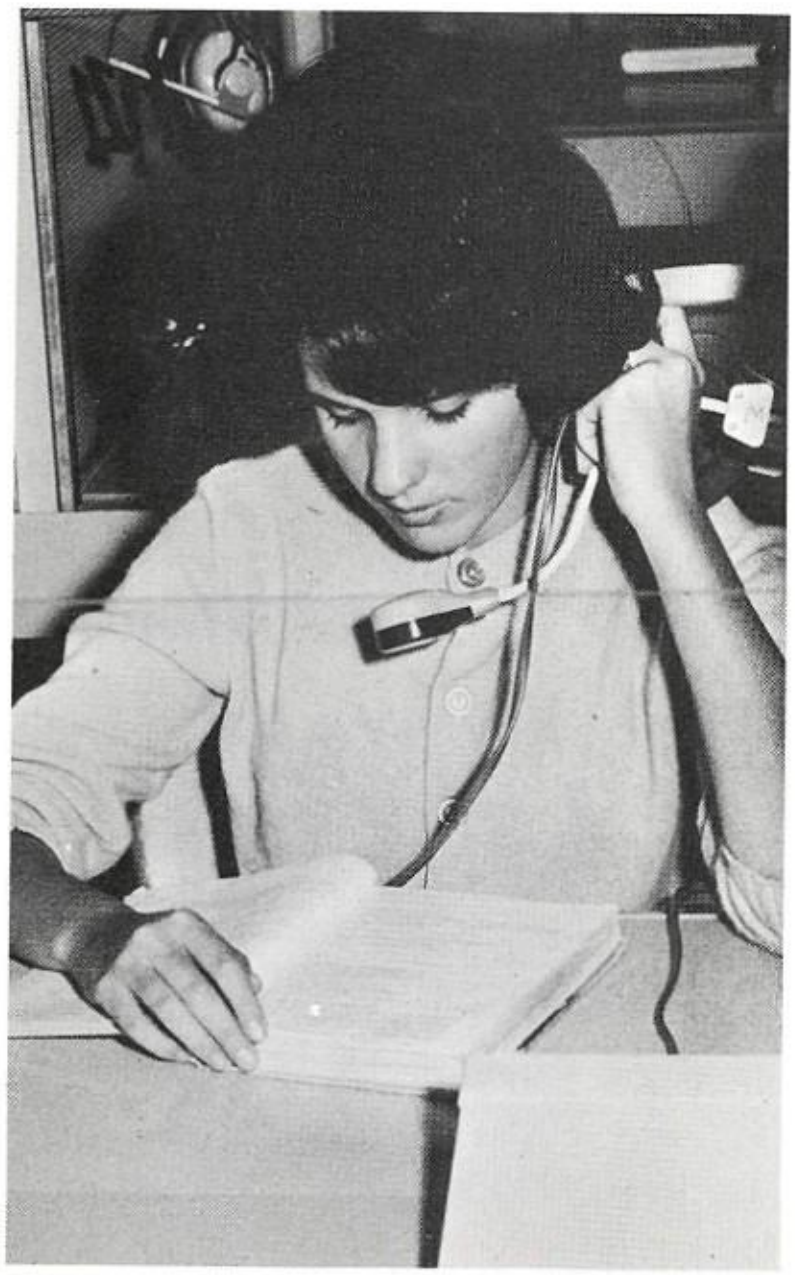
Larry Morris listens with interest as Mr. Murray shows him the "real" Mexico.

Penny Beck is really not blasting off. She's just using the language lab as all foreign language students do.



Mr. LoMaglio's class finds it's easier to understand the record if there are pictures to look at.

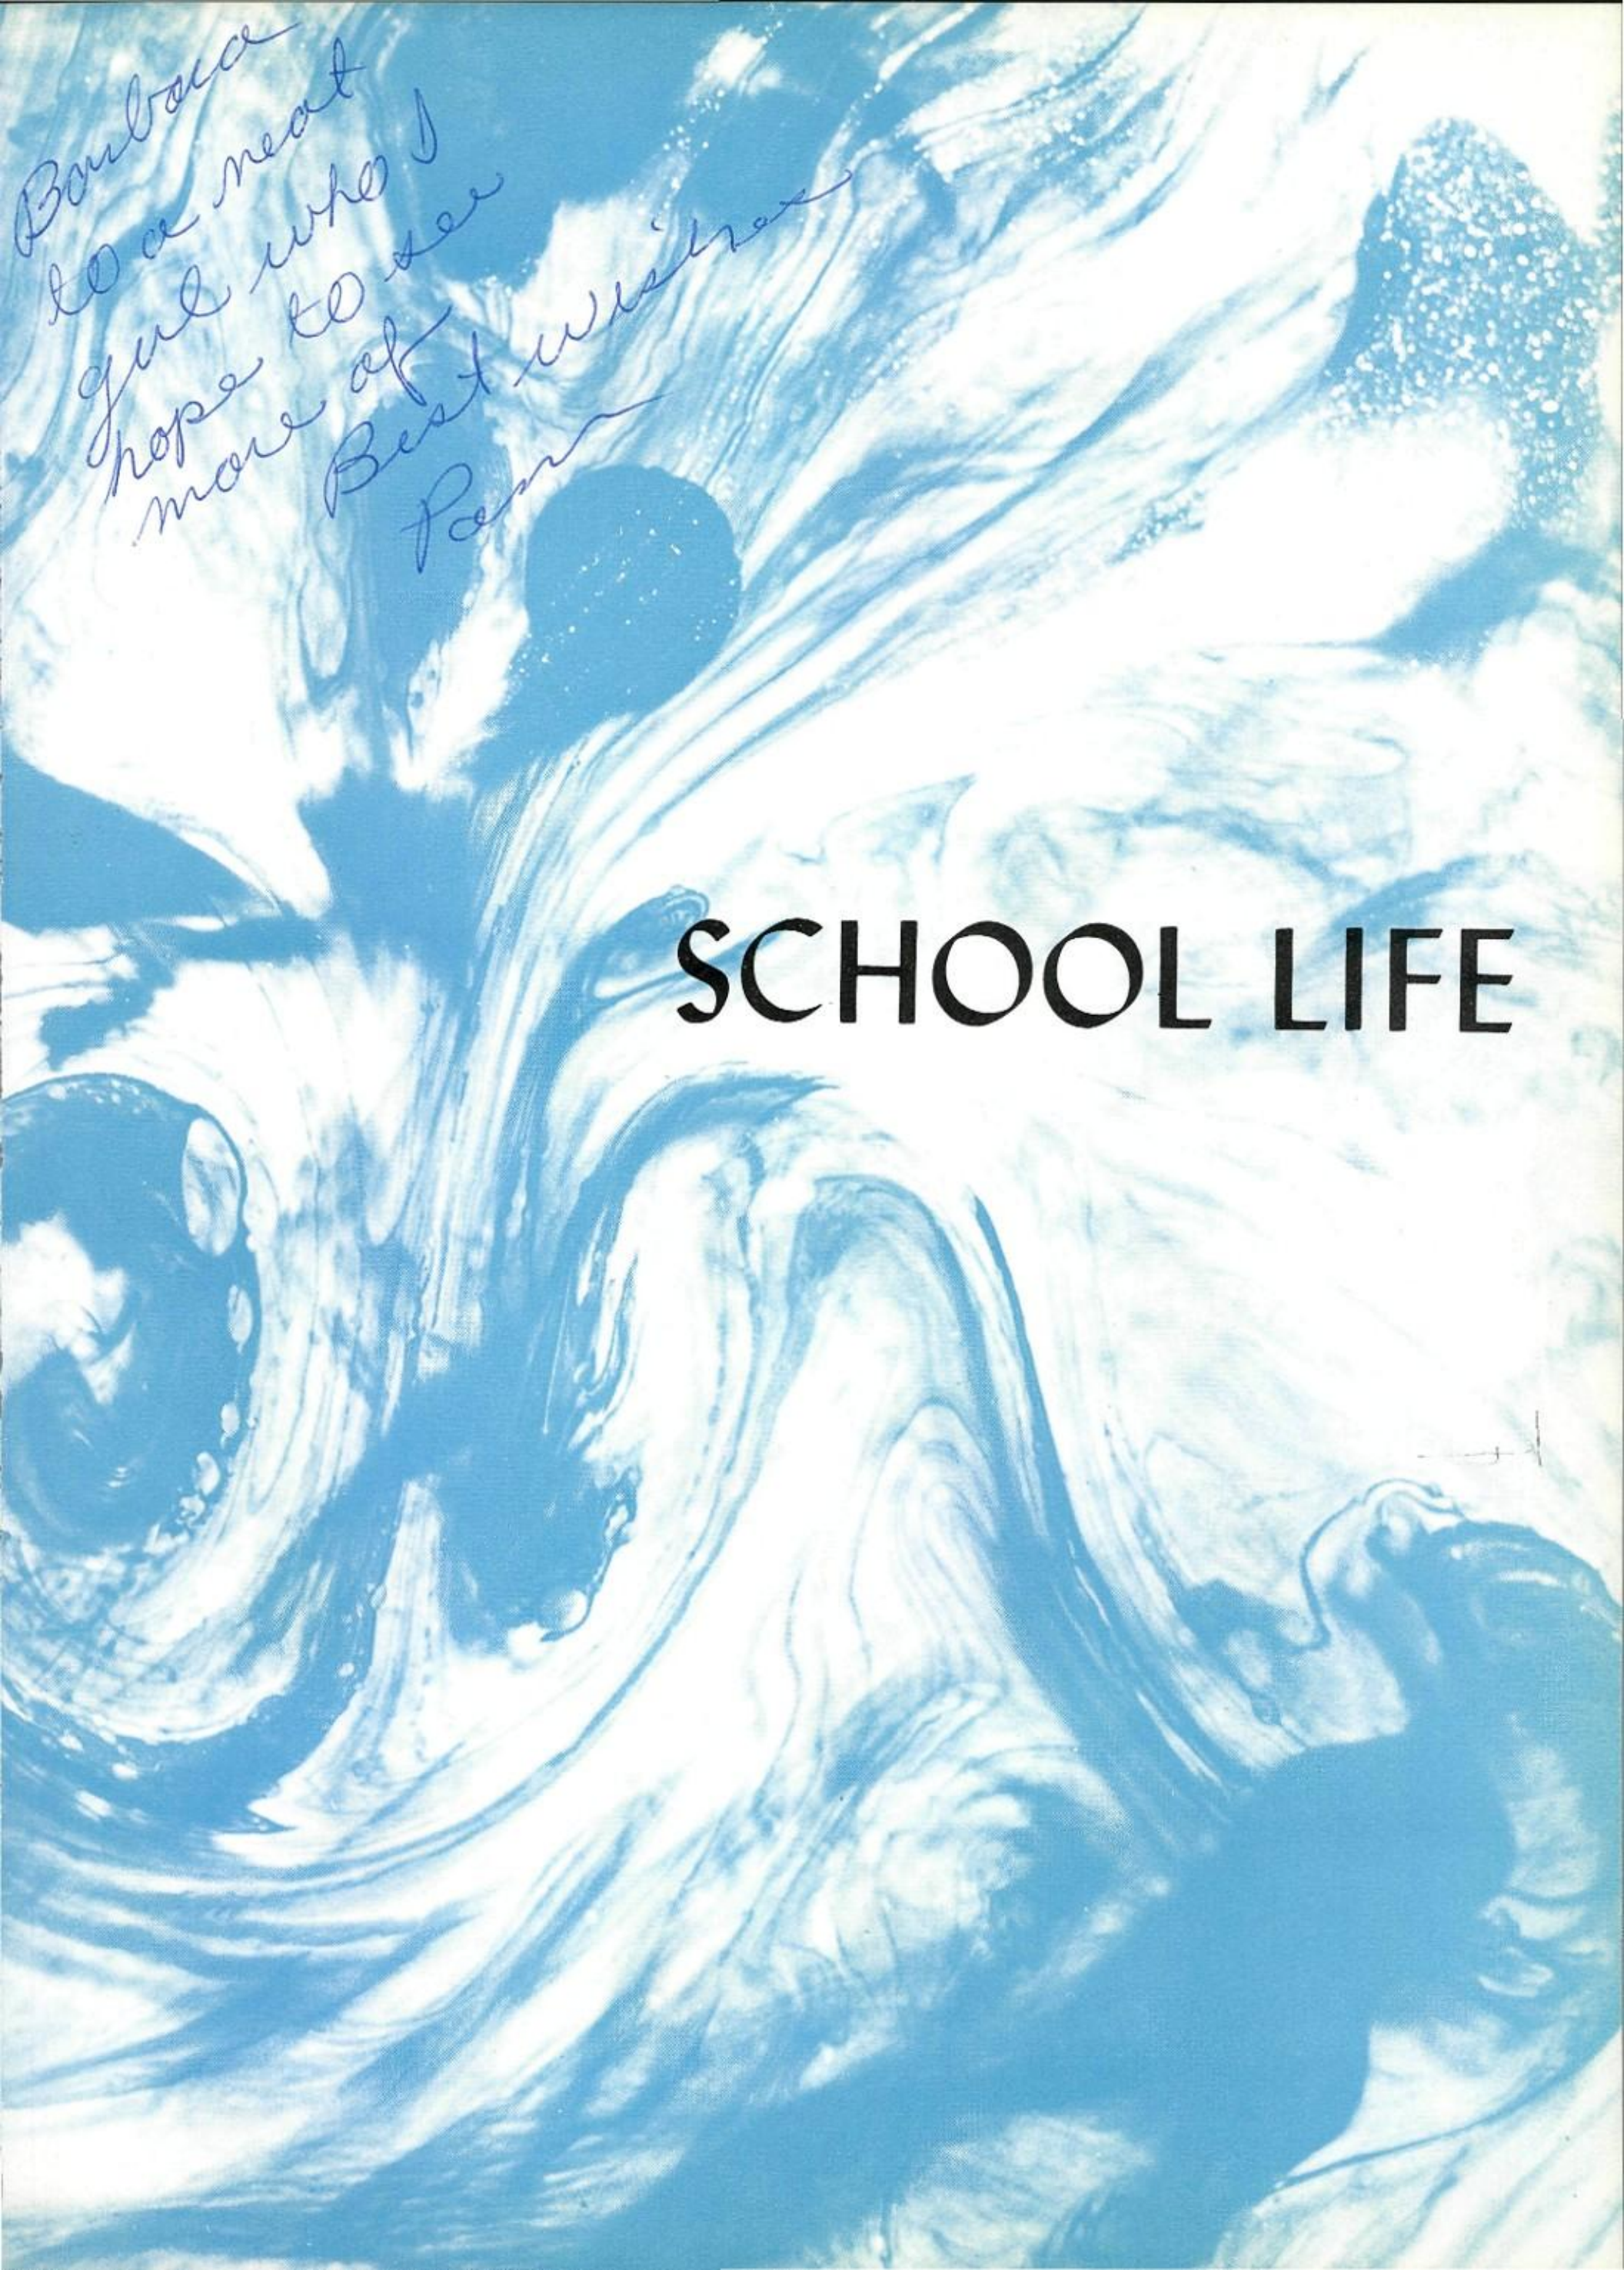
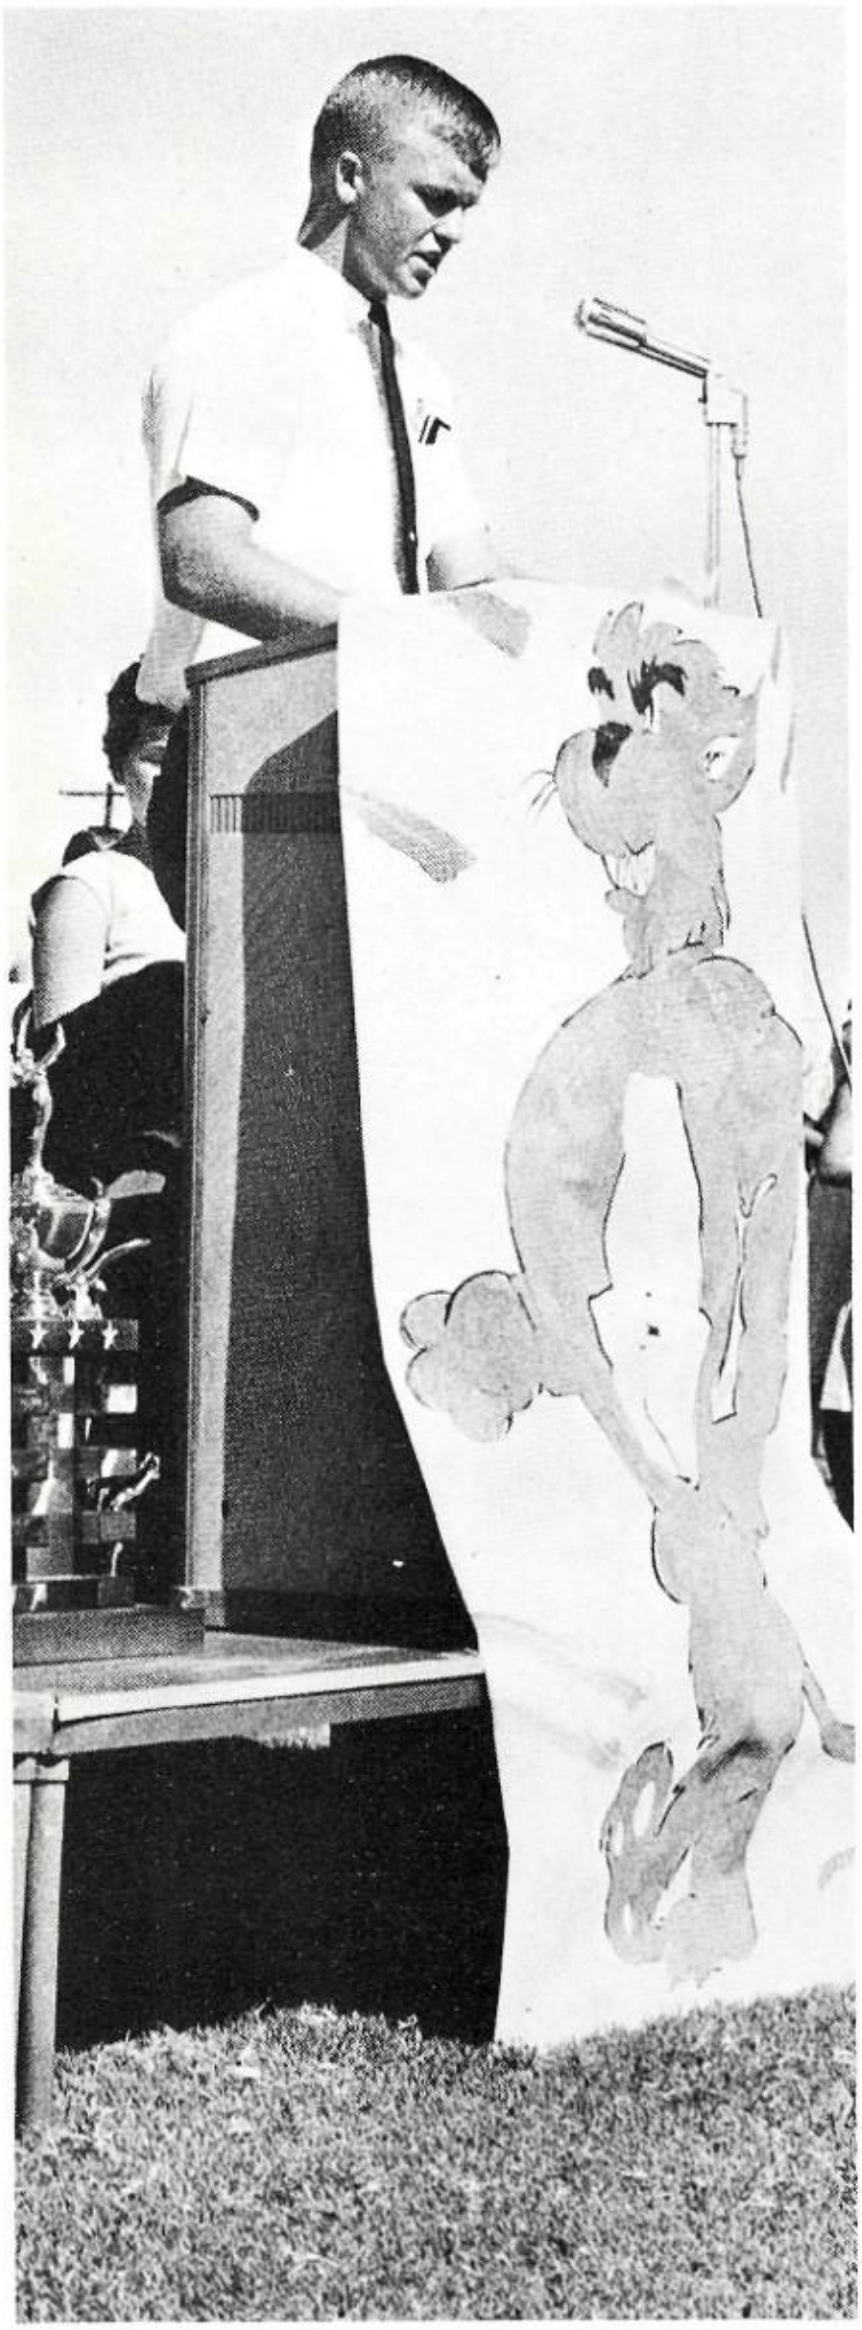
SCHOOL LIFE



Assemblies, Dances Set Spirit Surging in



At our first assembly, David Blackwell, Student Body President, asks us, "Are we Warriors, Titans, Badgers, Caballeros, Trojans, Lancers, or Panthers?" He challenges us to prove we are Panthers and to be proud of it.

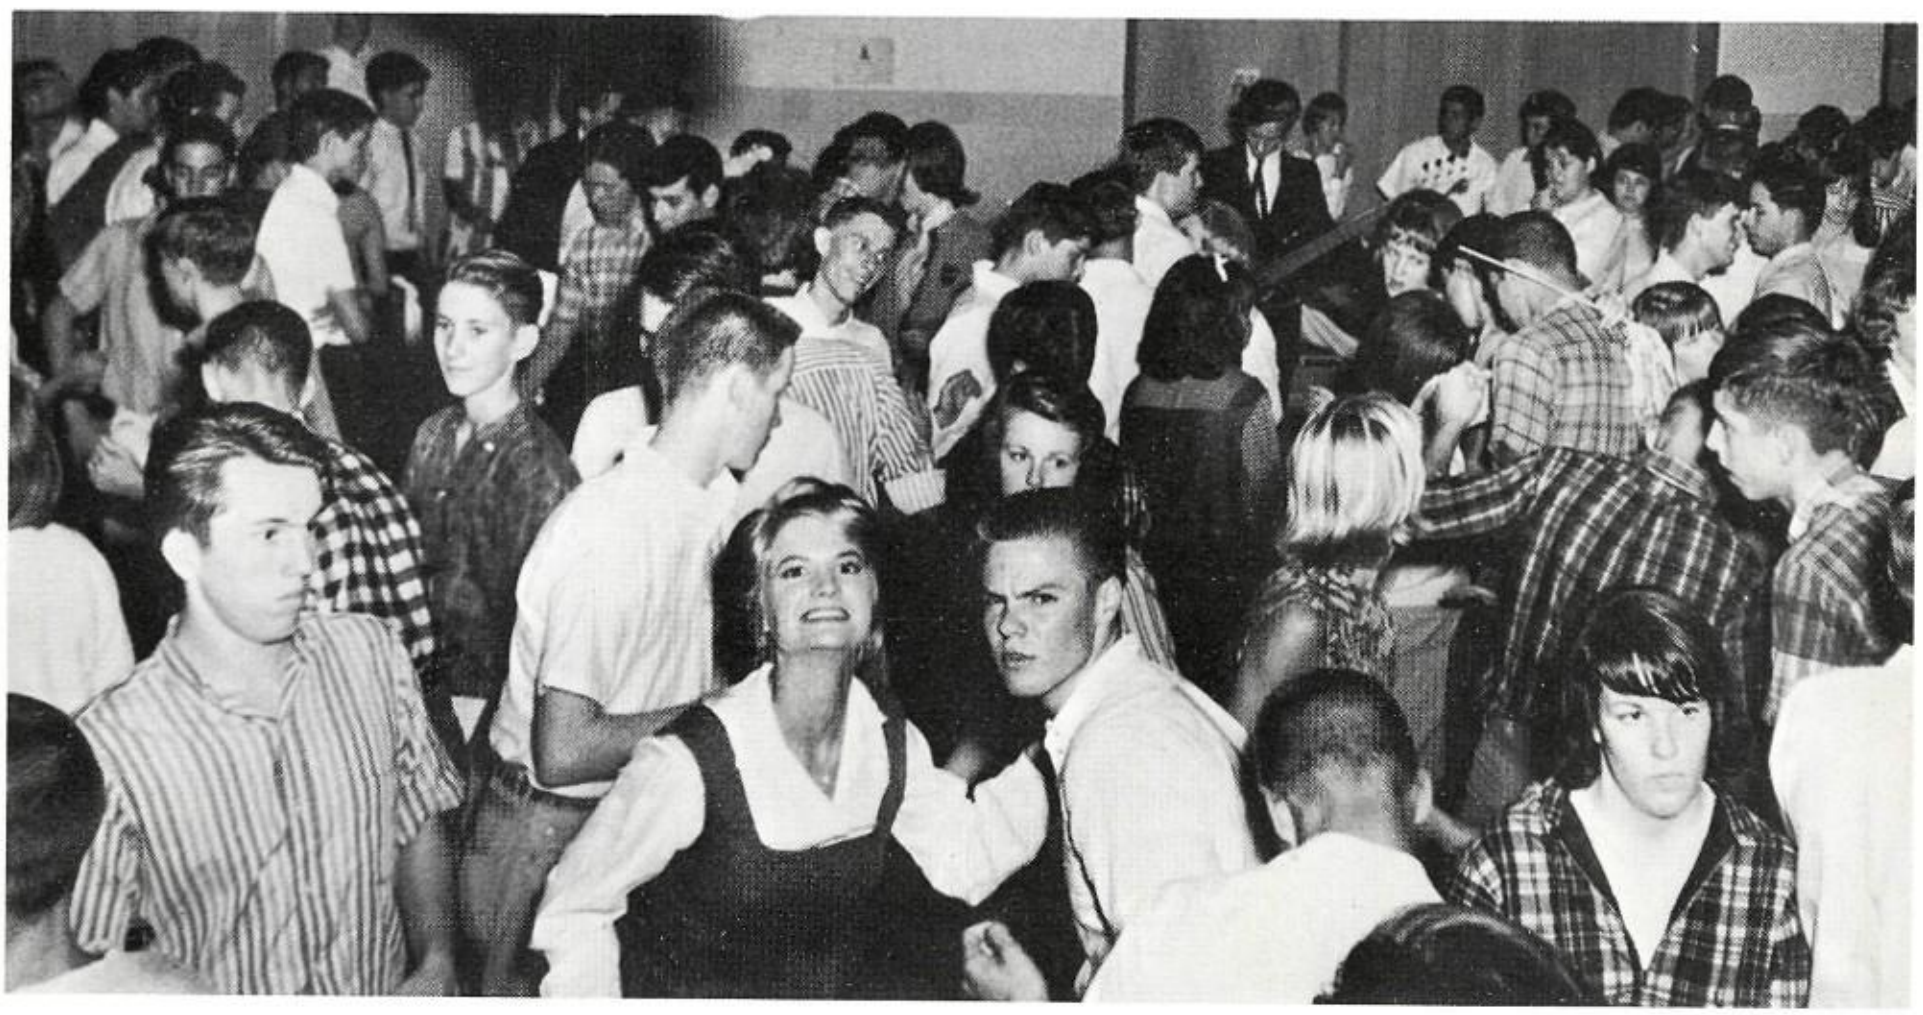
September as Students Resume Past Activities

"Now here comes a guy that's full of class; bowlegged Greg can really pass," chant Helen Fitchett and Sandy Smith as they introduce a member of the football team at our first pep assembly.

Greg Dyson is provided with good luck for the oncoming football season.



Various couples absorbed in doing their own versions of the Watusi can be recognized at the Girls' League Dance.

Homecoming Highlights Month of October

This blue and white "Catalina Cadillac" bears the brutal marks that hostile Amphites wished upon their A-Day rival.

The dance, with its theme of "It's Cherry Blossom Time," was a successful climax to the many activities of the week.

Congratulations to a Well-Deserving Team

Parents of the varsity football players smile proudly as they receive boutonnieres and corsages at half-time of the Tucson game.

Seniors anticipate the long hours they will spend on brain-teasing problems on the American College Testing Program examination.

Intent on inspiring the student body with school spirit, Barbara Bullington, Susan Williams, Carol Ann Plasterer, and Donna Fletcher employ their artistic talents in making a poster for the Yuma game.

Who could ever forget the post-assembly struggles to be the first one out of the gym?

Members of the cast of I'll Leave It to You, produced by Amphi's Drama department are shown re-enacting a scene from the Noel Coward comedy.

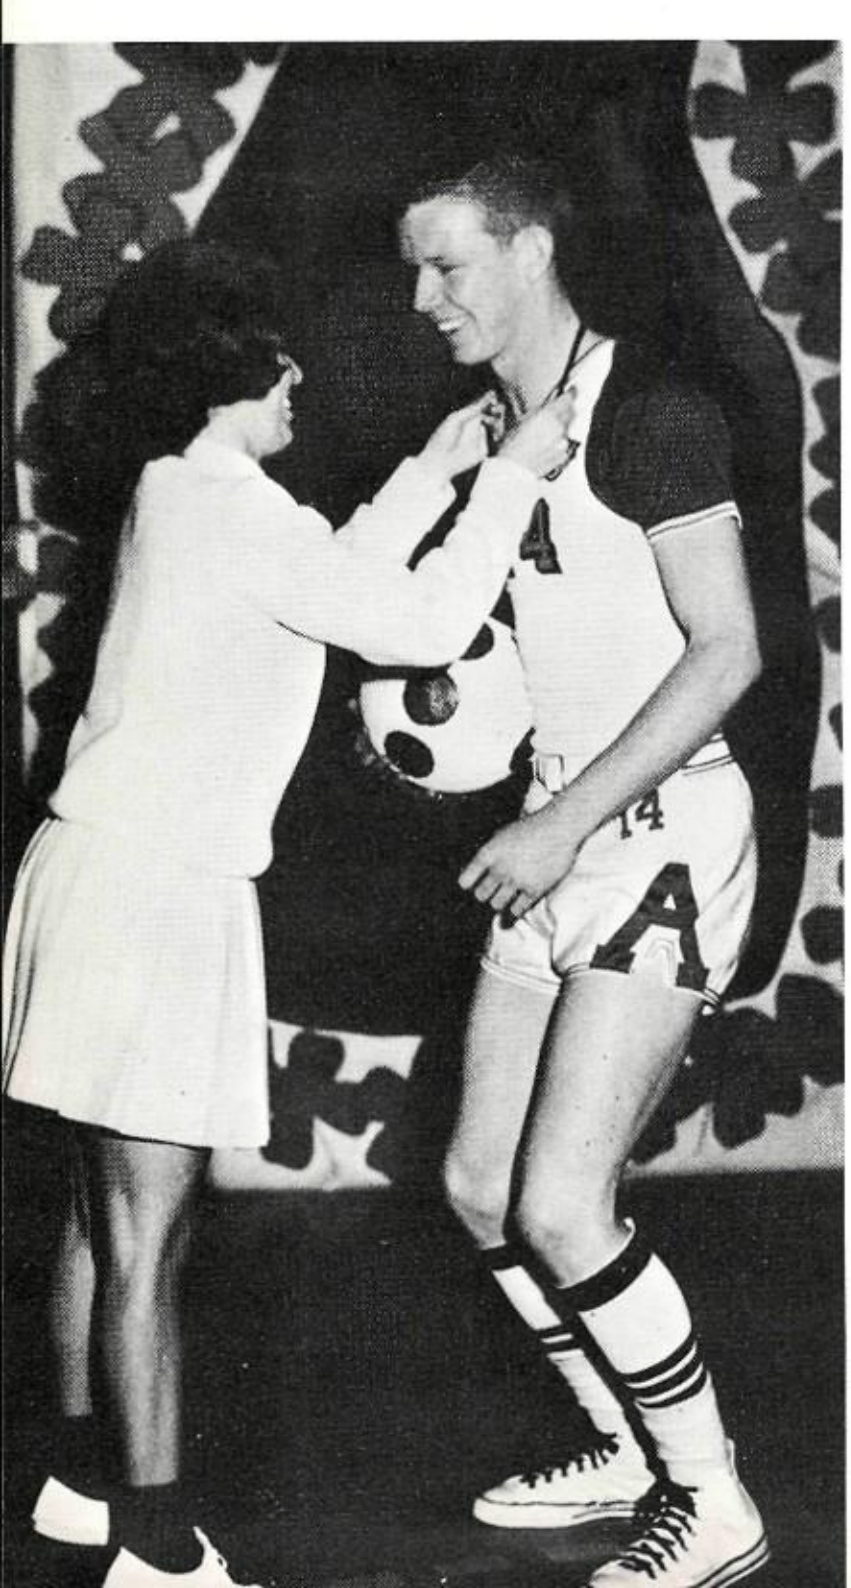
"Of course, my beard is real, Miss Mistletoe!" chuckles Santa Claus at the Senior Christmas Party.



This year, competition was even keener among the homerooms in the traditional door-decorating contest.

Ron McLearen bends down to receive the four-leaf clover presented by Barbara Bullington at the first basketball assembly.

Joyeux Noel! Second period classes were treated with French Christmas songs by Monsieur LoMaglio's fourth year French class.

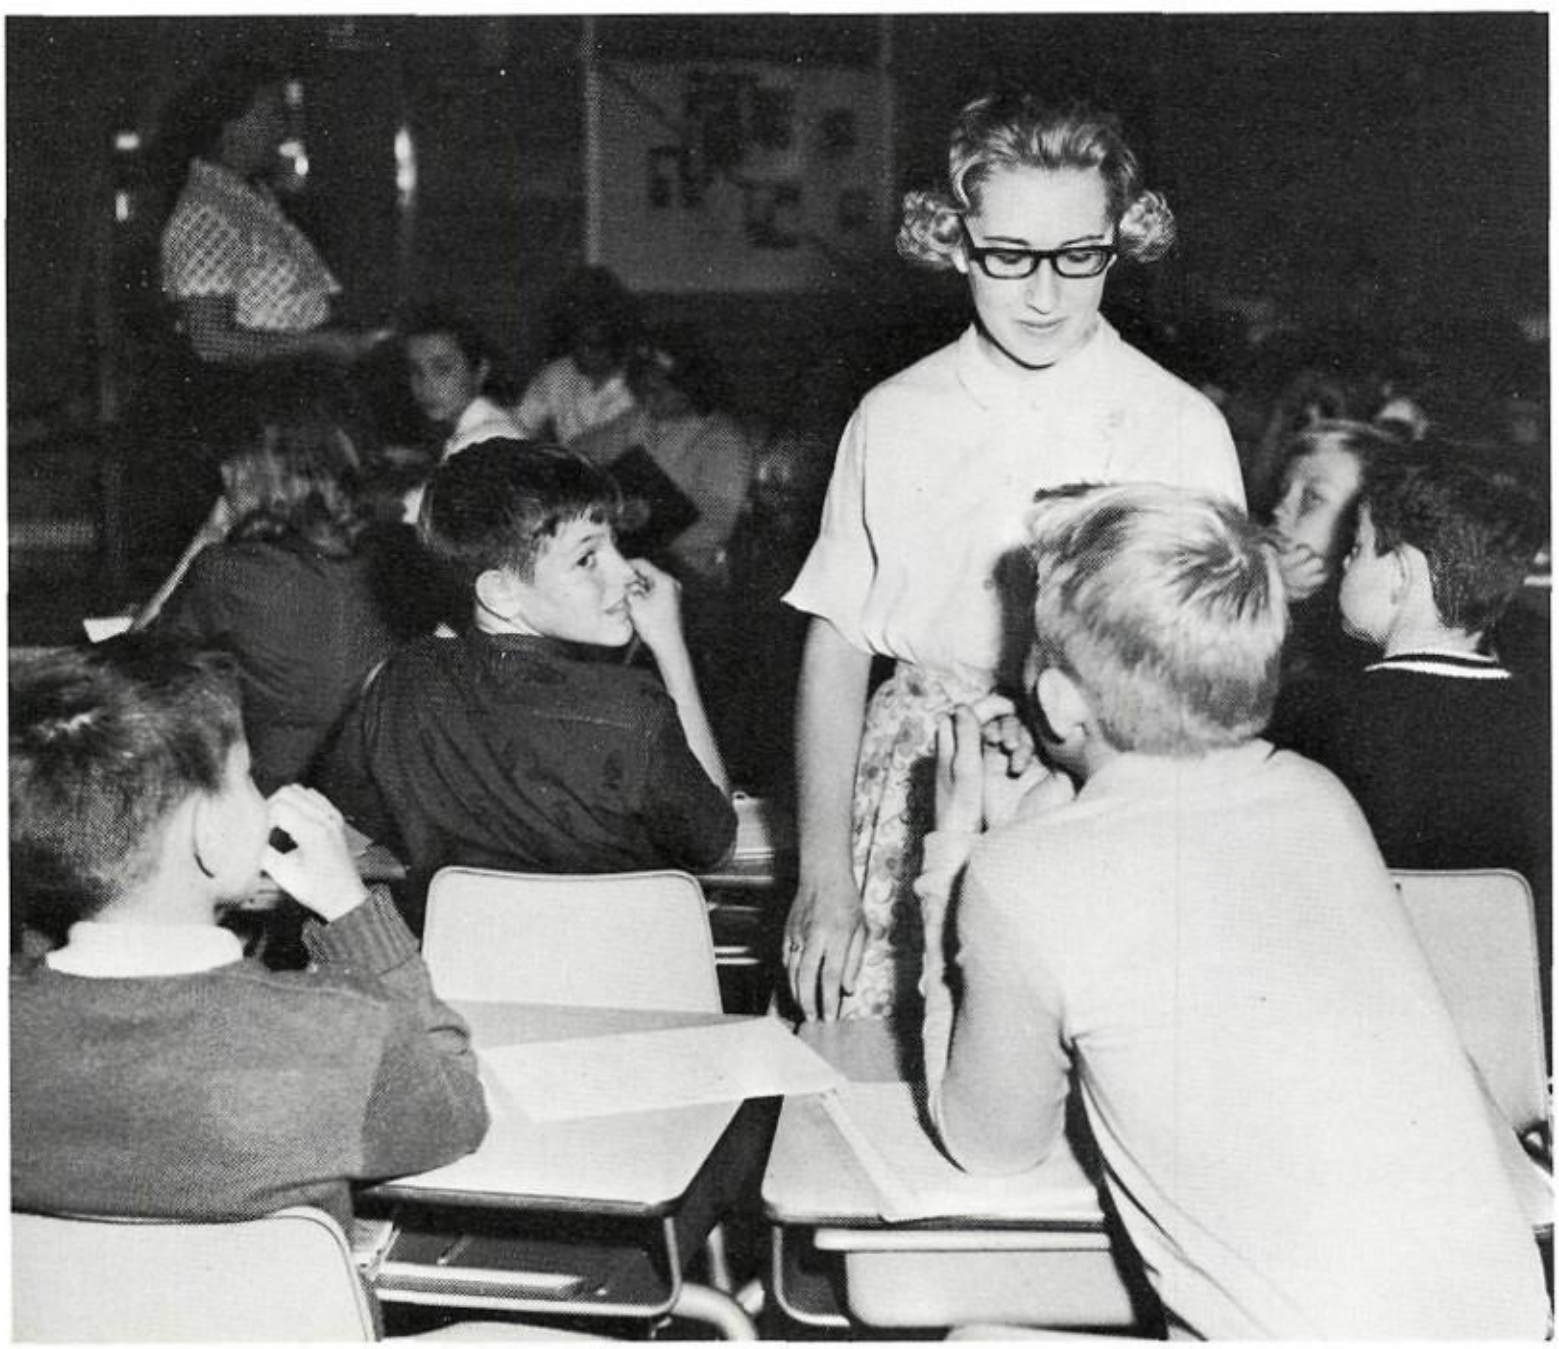
Season's Festivities Are Evident at Amphi

There were plenty of thrills and spills at the novel donkey basketball game as teachers and football players vied against each other.

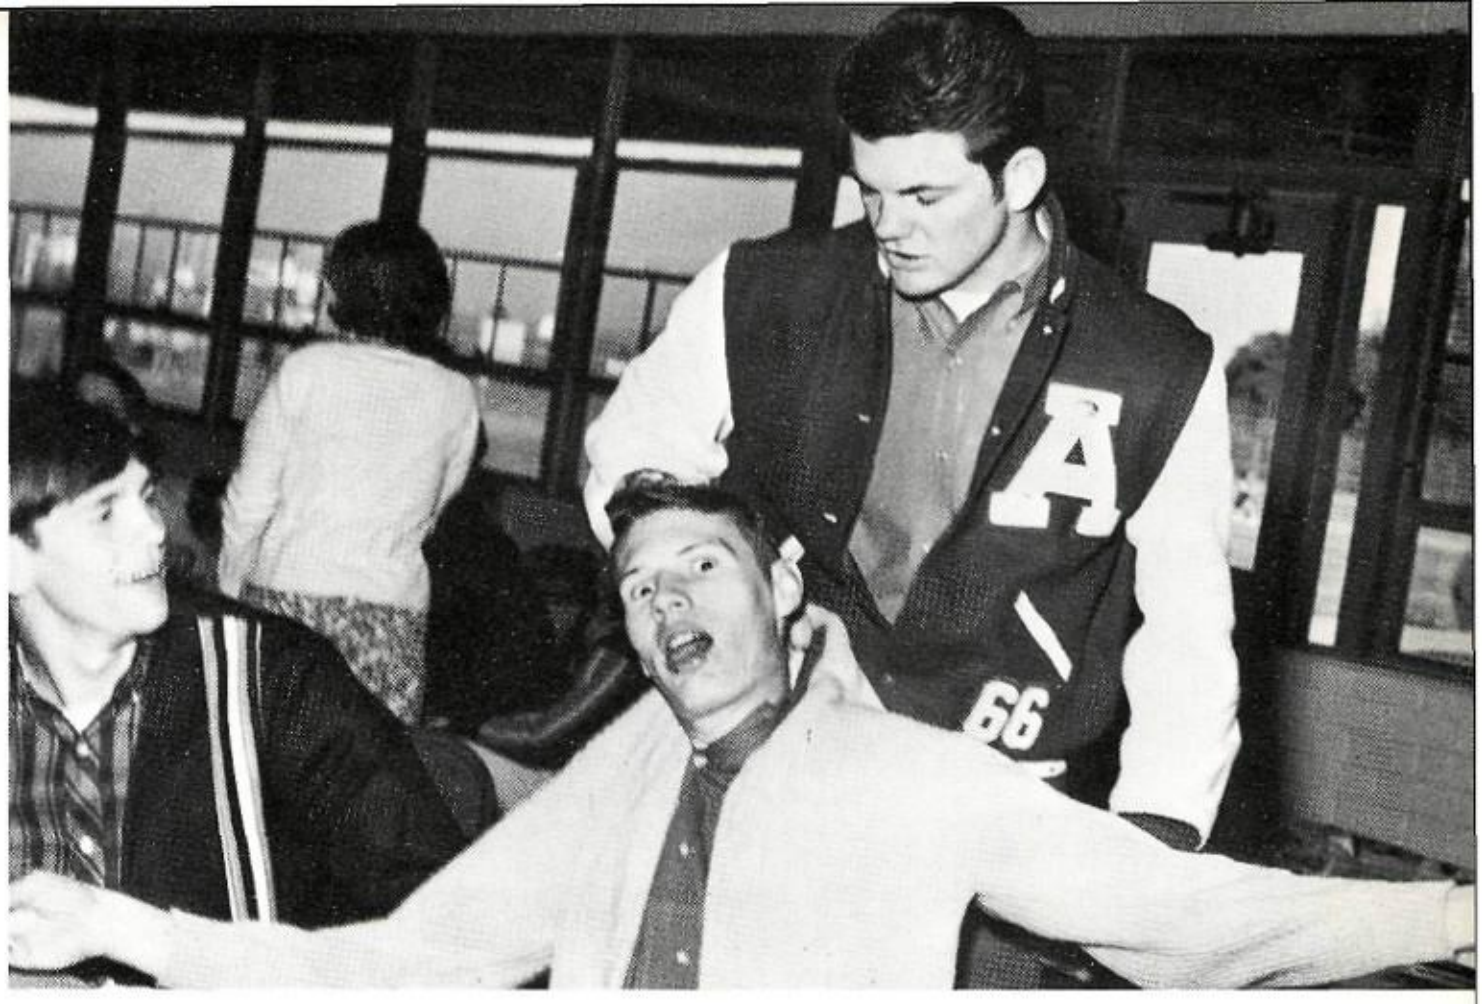
Mrs. Craven, librarian, informs Jim Russell and Phil Dyson that their exuberant studying for semester exams is disturbing the rest of the people.

Students in Mr. Marshall's Problems class concentrate on the difficult midterm test.

Semester Exams Result in Much Cramming



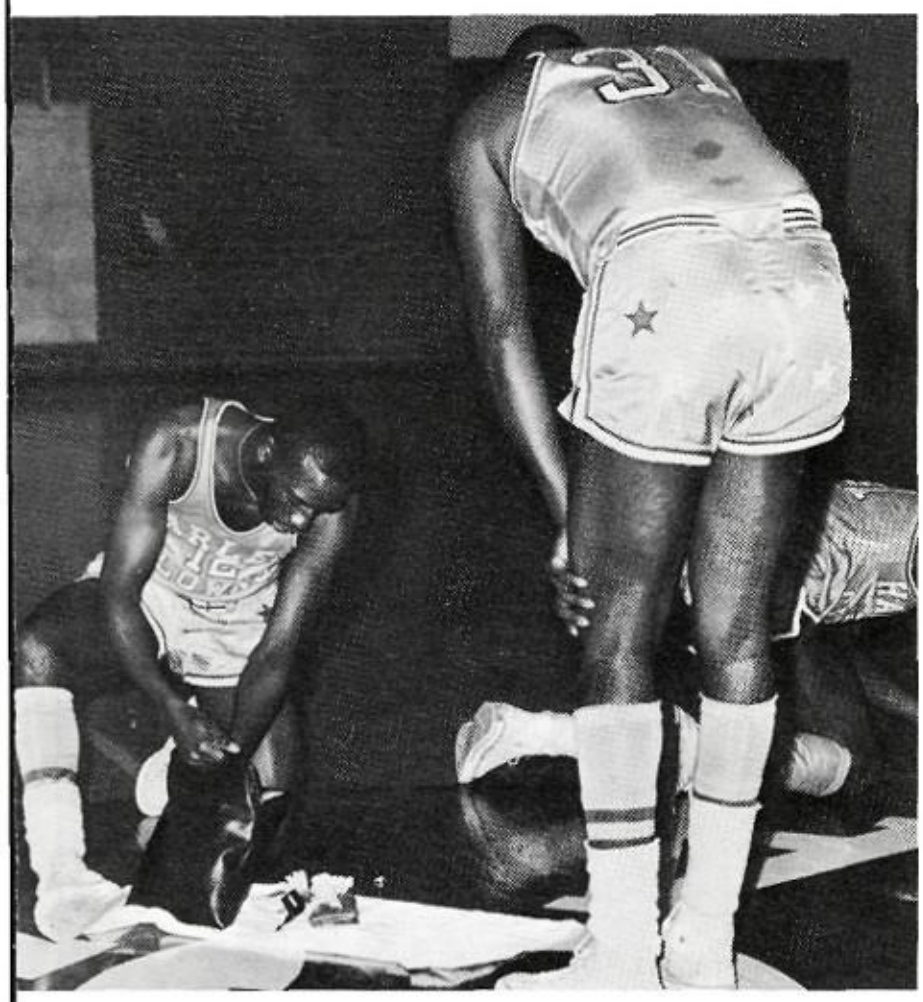
A member of Future Teachers of America, Bonnie Powell chats with one of her students at Lulu Walker School. Exploratory teaching is one of the many phases of F.T.A.



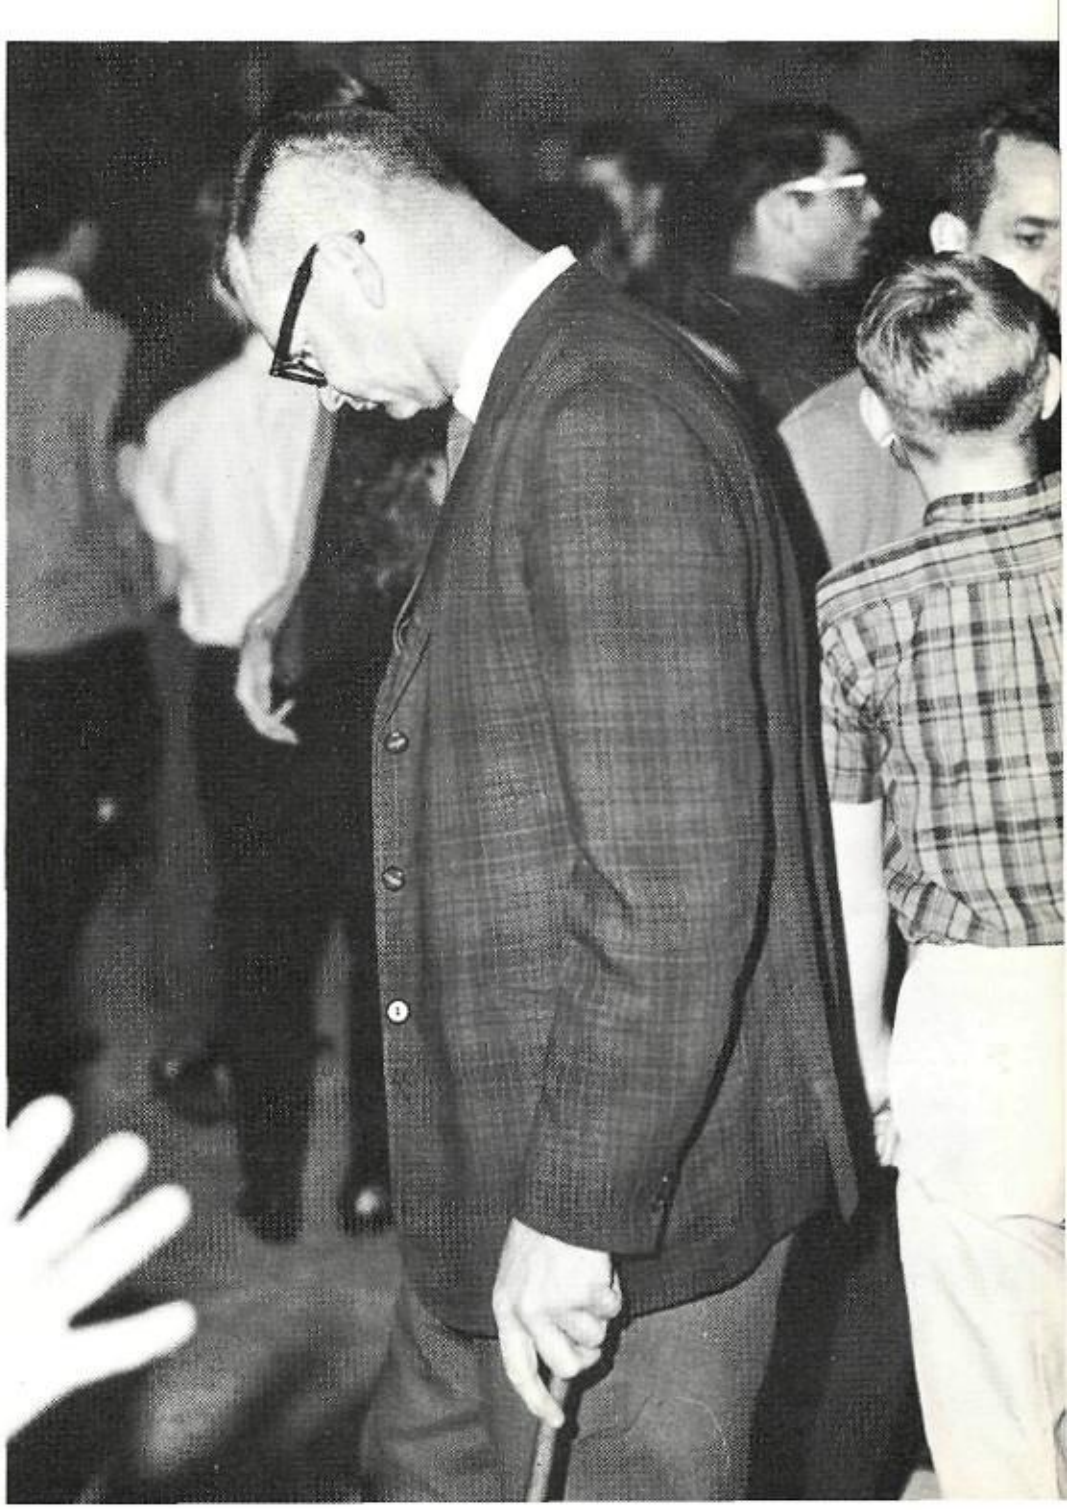
After two days of grueling exams, Bill Boyer, Delmar Booth, and Don Tatman release their pent up energies in the cafeteria.

And Many Sleepless Nights for Students

The Harlem Clowns (below) interrupt their lively basketball game in order to embarrass a spectator by inspecting the contents of her purse.



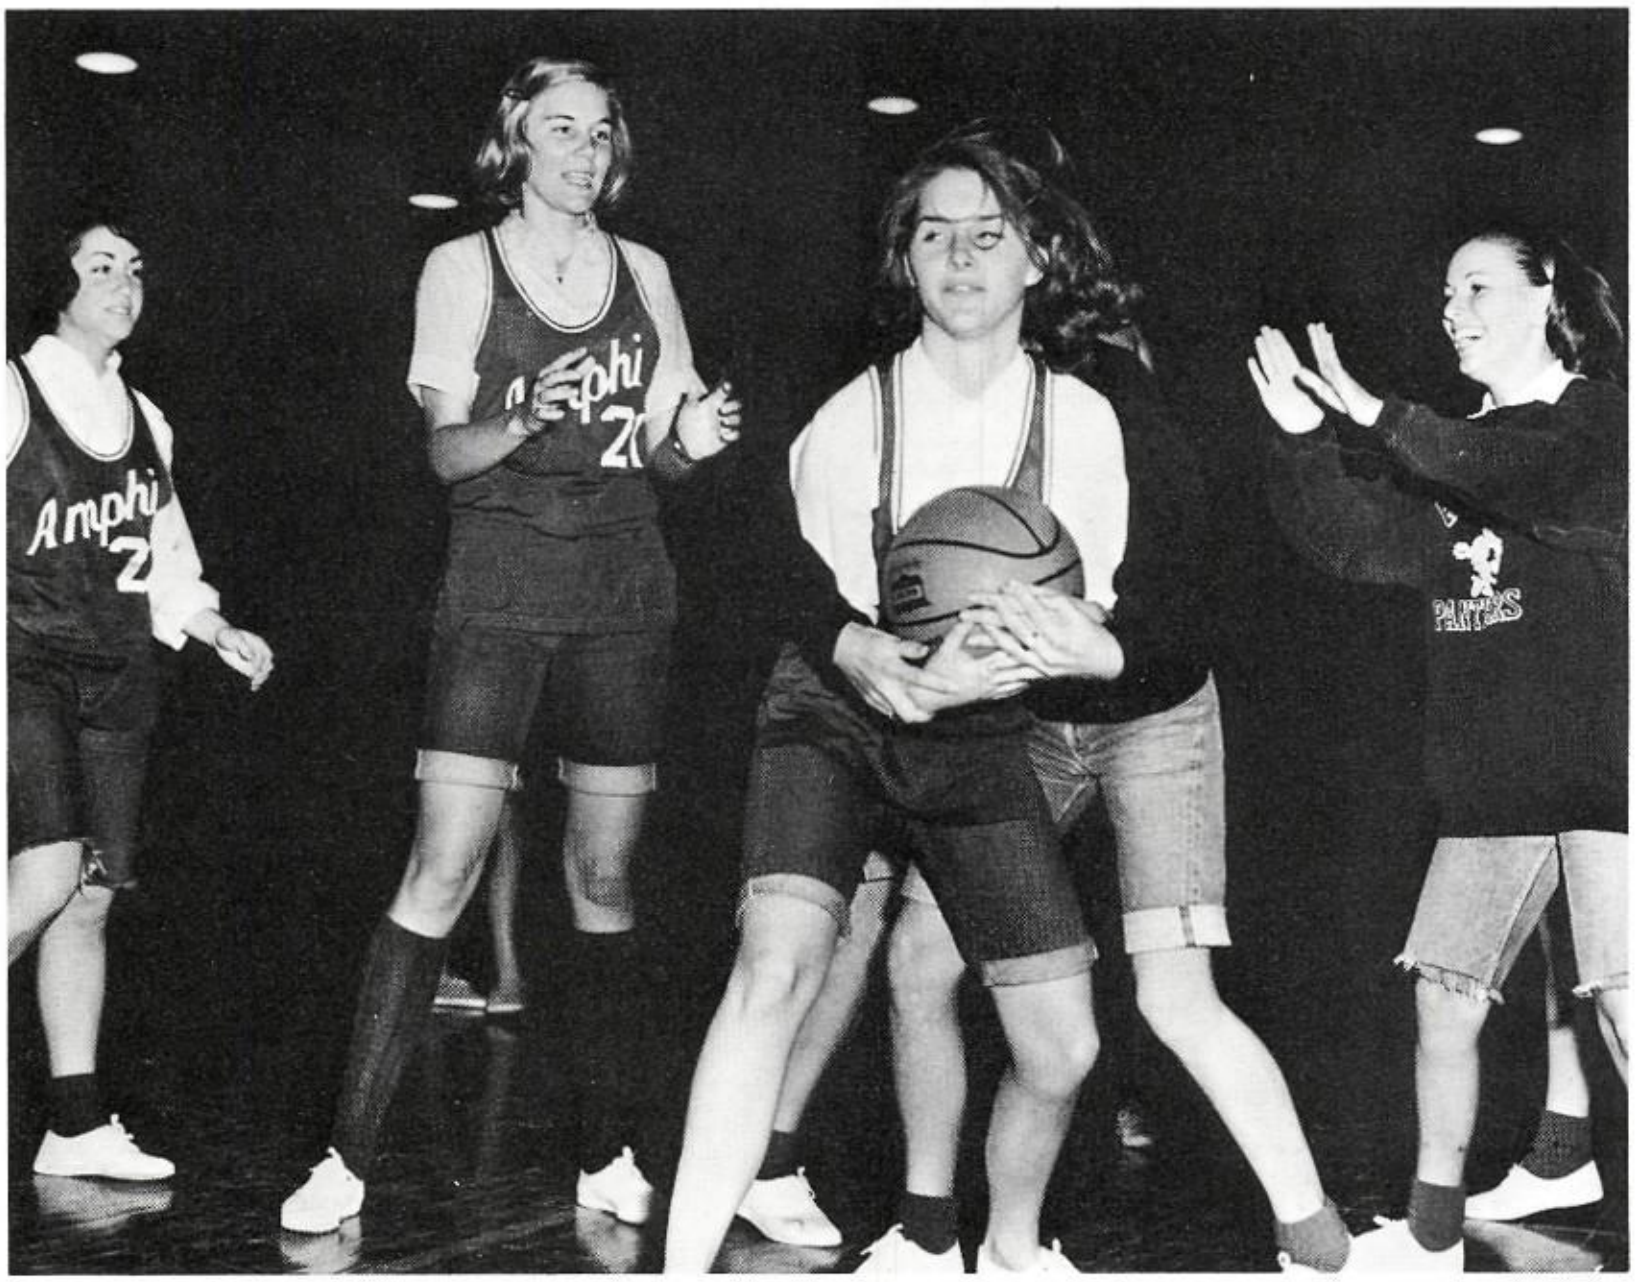
Bat Masterson with his famous cane? No, it's just Mr. Haugh examining an intricate dance step. (at right)



Western Atmosphere Prevails in February

Reggie Dowdall solicits contributions for the senior Most Eligible Bachelor Candidate, Wade Dyson.

At the Twirp Week Wizard of Id Show, Bruce Reiser makes milk disappear from a folded newspaper. Bruce won the most-talented category of the show.



More Harlem Clowns? No, they're the Junior and Senior girls competing in the Powder Puff Game.

Watch out, Mr. Hendrix!

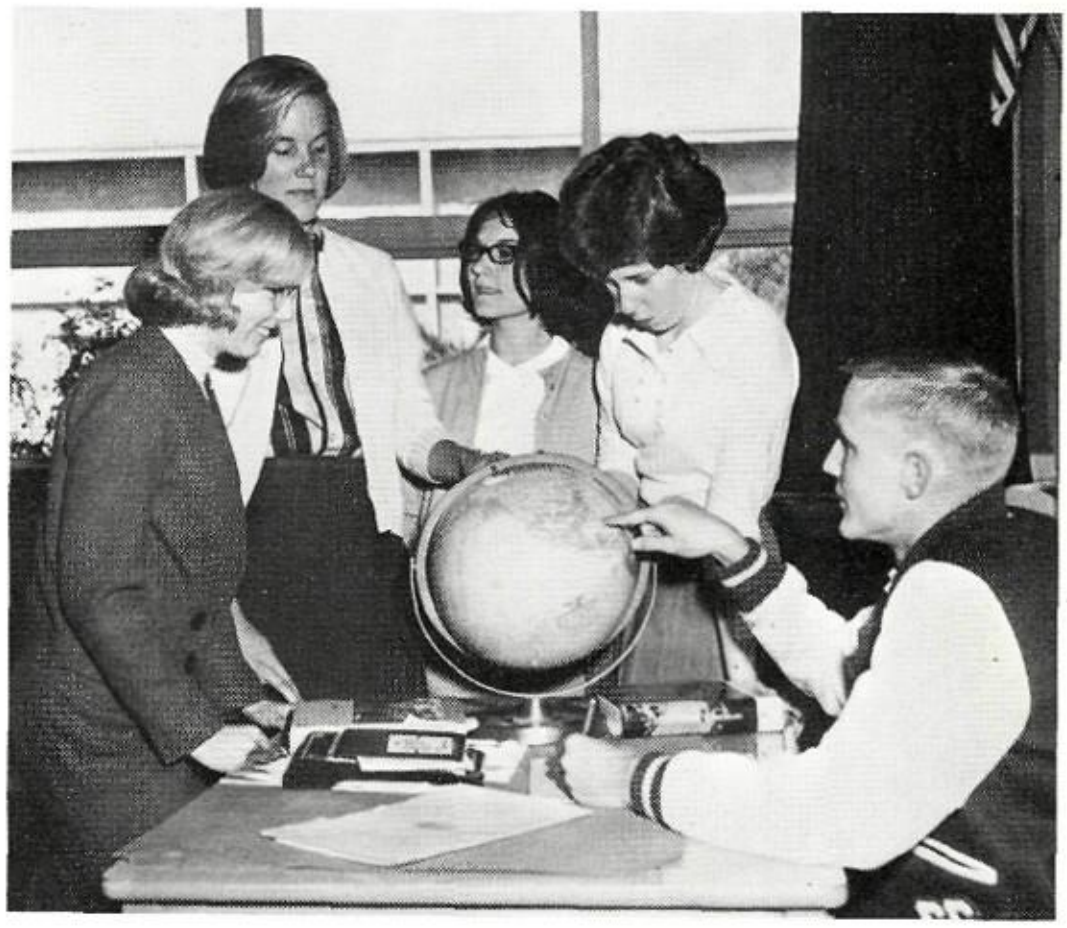
Dave Stott and Michelle Ryals participate in some old-fashioned square dancing.

Looks like this podnuh got headed off at the pass!

Seniors Prepare for June Graduation

Mrs. Baker, girls' counselor, measures Evelyn Irwin, senior, for her cap and gown.

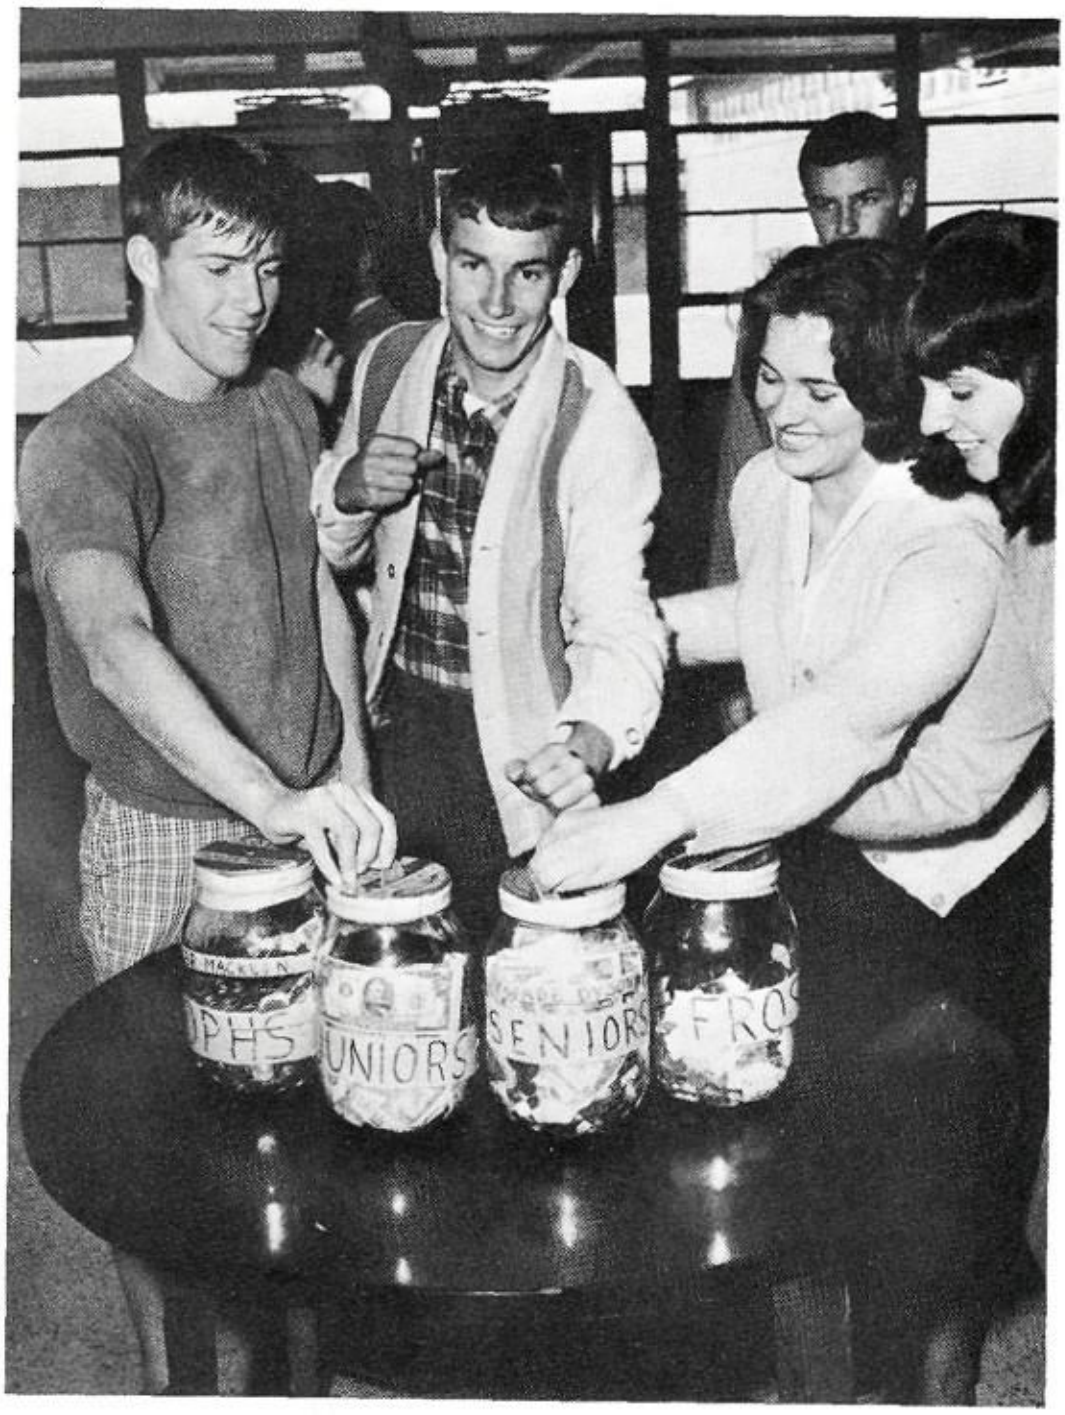


Suzanne Wilkinson, Susan Snodgrass, Vicki Lecher, Melba Dotson, and Lynn Lybeck discuss the countries they will represent in the Speech Classes' Model United Nations.

Honor Society meetings are renowned for their excellent refreshments.

School Activities Unite Amphi Panthers

This is our Student Body President?



Chuck Harris, Manfred Frannea, Jean Neubauer, and Marcy Waterman loyally support their Most Eligible Bachelor candidates.

Bad ''Bart'' shoots it up at A-Day celebration.

AFS Student Excels in Gymnastics, Music,

Renate Himmelmann's friendly personality earned for her a great number of friends. Here, Jeanette Rickard, Kathy Wallace, Renate, Jean Neubauer, and Carol Whitehead are undoubtedly discussing world-shaking problems—such as which boy to twirp for the Twirp Week dance.

Mary Alice, Renate, Mr. and Mrs. Corke, and Ann pose for a holiday portrait at the Corke's house during Christmas vacation. Part of their vacation was spent in California where Renate made her trip complete by seeing Disneyland.

Student Gov, Studies

Renate Himmelmann comes to us from Bammental, Germany near Heidelberg. Arriving in Tucson late in August, she met her American family, the P. M. Corkes, and many of her classmates-to-be.

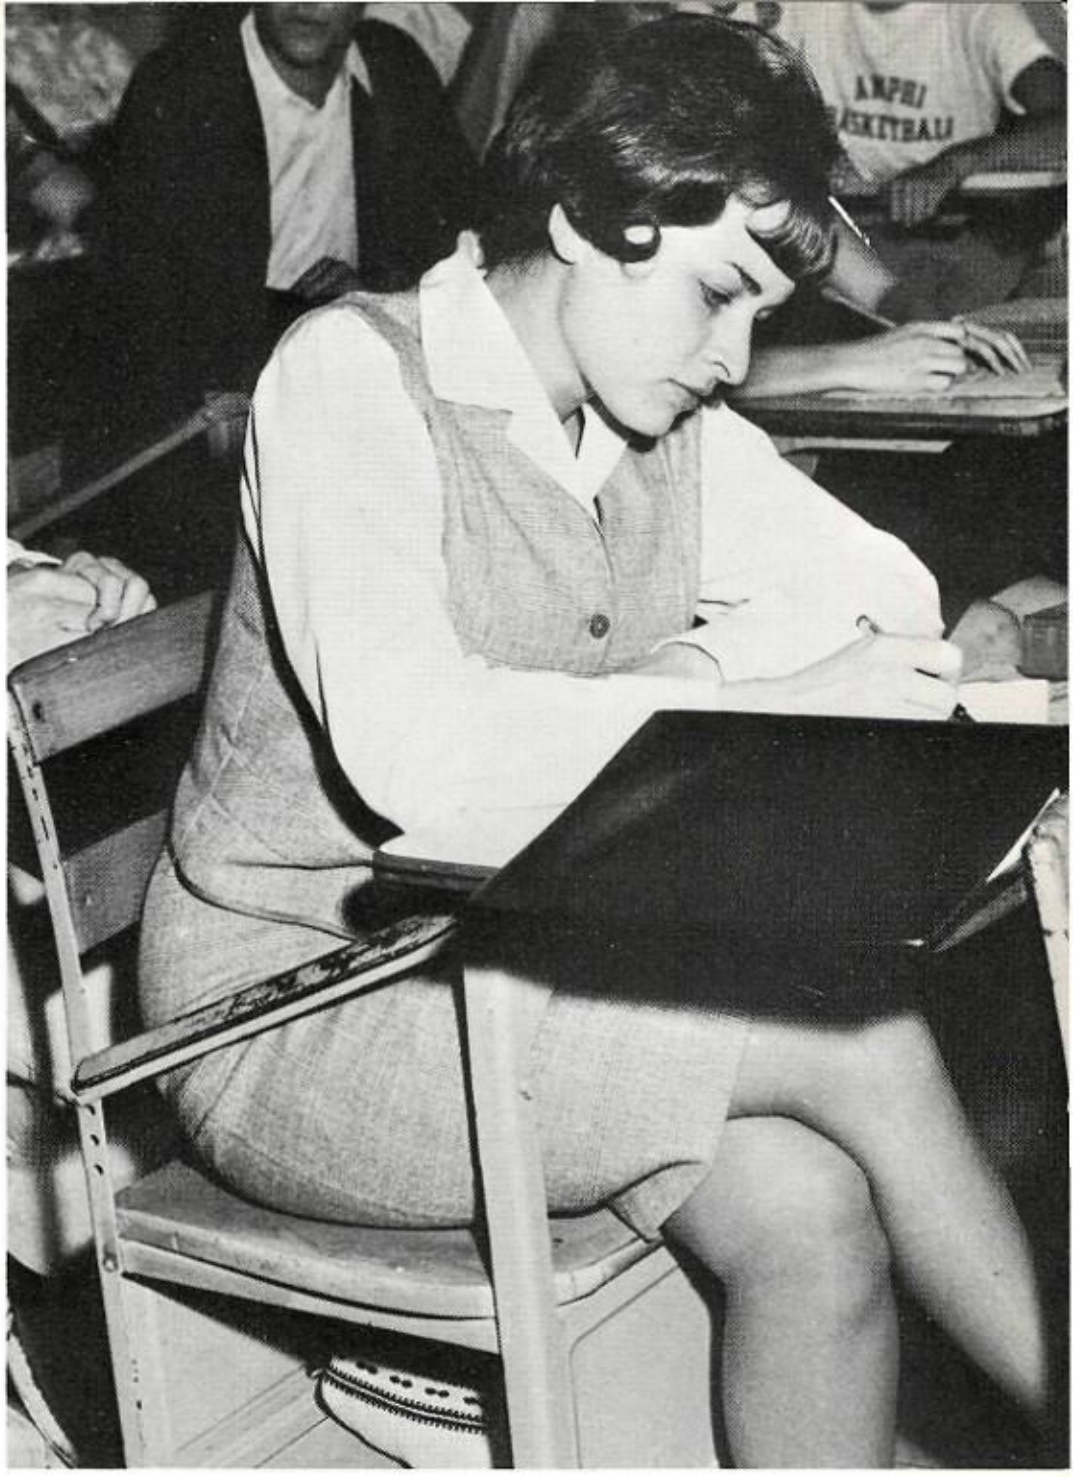
Renate's own family consists of three sisters and her mother. One of her sisters is married and lives in Seattle, Washington.

Fraulein (Miss) Himmelmann has a full schedule to keep her busy during the day. She is taking Speech, French, Chorus, American Problems, American History, English and P.E. In all of these subjects, she is maintaining a 1.0 grade average. Student Council, gymnastics, GAA, Y-Teens, Girl's League, and the Hiking and Folk Music Clubs take up much of her spare time.

Renate is in the Advanced Girl's chorus class. She needed only one point to make the All-State Chorus. She has also won honors in a speech contest and gymnastics.

We have enjoyed having Renate at Amphi, and we hope that AFS will continue to send students of as high a caliber and with as warm a personality as our Renate.

Question: Why does Renate look so proud? Probable answer: Because she managed to get a top locker (which some of us never do in our four years).



Studying intensely in her American History class, Renate is learning about the heritage of our American way of life.

Renate and Chuck Harris, a Junior Class Representative, talk over student council problems with Mr. Butler, assistant principal and student council advisor, during their lunch hour.

Production of an issue of THE DESERT GAZETTE begins on a Friday when staff members draw their page layouts. During class time, the staff seeks information, interviews people, and searches for material for the stories. Deadline for all copy is Thursday. Then the Galley sheets are sent to the printer, who returns them to the staff on Monday. Dummy sheets are prepared before the final edition is printed. Wednesday, THE DESERT GAZETTES are distributed to the students. Thus, the cycle continues . . . .

FOOTBALL

1964 was a banner year for football at Amphi. The varsity squad put together a record of eight wins, one loss, and one tie. The Panthers placed second in the AA-4 Division with a conference mark of 6-1-1. The only blemishes on the team's record were a 23-12 loss to city champ Salpointe and a 7-7 tie with a tough Rincon team. The Panthers displayed a spectacular offense, leading all local teams in scoring and total offense.

The Amphi defense was also best in the city, yielding an average of just 161 yards per game. The Panthers shut out four of their opponents.

The results of the varsity games this season were:

Amphi	21	Pueblo	7
Amphi	12	Salpointe	23
Amphi	25	Sunnyside	0
Amphi	7	Catalina	6
Amphi	7	Rincon	7
Amphi	38	Palo Verde	0
Amphi	34	Flowing Wells	0
Amphi	26	Tucson	6
Amphi	59	Douglas	13
Amphi	14	Yuma	0

The only team in school history to compile a better record was the 1953 squad, which was 9-1. The Panthers were ranked sixth in the state in the final wire service polls after rising as high as fourth.

The following players received All-State honors:

The Arizona Daily Star—First team: Rex Macklin, end. Second team: Greg Dyson, tackle, and Jessie Molina, quarterback. Honorable mention: Steve Copeland, guard; Wade Dyson, center; and Bill Burke, fullback.

The Tucson Daily Citizen—Second team: (offense) Rex Macklin, end; Greg Dyson, tackle; and Jesse Molina, quarterback; (defense) Rex Macklin, end. Honorable mention: (offense) Steve Copeland, guard; and Bill Burke, fullback; (defense) Steve Copeland, guard; Wade Dyson, linebacker; and Dave Munoz, defensive back.

CROSS COUNTRY

Although the cross country team did not compile an impressive record, the squad did show much potential in defeating Flowing Wells. The top runner was senior Roy Harris.

BASKETBALL

The 1964-65 season was one of mixed joy and disappointment for Amphi rooters. Although the Panthers put together a 12-6 regular season record, one of the best in recent years, the team was unable to repeat its stunning march to third place in the state tournament last year. The Panthers finished fourth in the tough AA-4 Division, but fell to Scottsdale in the first round of the inter-divisional tourney.

Although lacking in height, the Amphi team had one of the most exciting offenses in the state. Led by high-scoring forward Ron Sauer, and center Greg Dyson, the Panthers twice went over the 100-point mark, the only AA-4 team ever to do so. The Panthers also upset such teams as Catalina, the number two team in the AA-4, and Flowing Wells, the top team in the A South conference.

The season results were as follows.

Amphi	102	Douglas	68	Amphi	54	Palo Verde	66
Amphi	46	Catalina	54	Amphi	35	Pueblo	50
Amphi	52	Palo Verde	64	Amphi	56	Tucson	51

INTERDIVISIONAL TOURNAMENT

Amphi	39	Scottsdale	46

Other top performers on the varsity included senior guard Dave Munoz, senior forward Jesse Molina, senior guard Larry Lawrence, junior guard Mark Wilford, and junior forward LeRoy Hull. All were starters at one time or another. Rounding out the varsity were juniors Farrell Genung, Rick Charter, Lynn Lybeck, Phil Dyson, and Greg Cox.

Greg Dyson won All-City second team honors for his rebounding and scoring.

Coach Johnny Tissaw's JV team finished in a tie with Rincon for the city championship. Greg Cox and Danny Huff led the team in scoring and rebounding.

The Freshman team put together its best season record ever.

WRESTLING

The wrestling team, too, had a good season. The grapplers had a six win—four loss meet record and two wrestlers, Jerry Herring and Steve Copeland, took city titles in their weights.

Copeland went on to take the state championship in the 154-pound division, while Herring finished third in the 165-pound class.

The Panthers were tenth in the state meet.

Senior Spotlight

Barbara -
Best of luck always in everything you may do
Jeanette

MOST LIKELY TO SUCCEED . . .

Expert safe-crackers, Jeanette Rickard, Student body Vice-President, and Larry Lawrence, Senior class Vice-President, attempt to succeed in the world of business.

BEST ALL AROUND PERSONALITY . . .

Barbara Bullington, a cheerleader for four years, and David Munoz, a four year letterman, take a break from regular school activities.

MOST ATHLETIC . . .

Rita McHolland, a member of A-Club, and Jesse Molina, a member of the basketball, football, and baseball teams, sharpen up their athletic ability in a friendly game of marbles.

Barb - Thank you for receiving the corsage & pin I wish you lots of luck in the future - Dana BEST DANCERS . . .

Dana Liddington and Sonny Wiggins show off some of their dancing ability for any interested on-lookers.

BEST DRESSED . . .

Jimmy Parker and Nana Oaks, known for their excellent taste in clothing, display some of Ampi's latest fashions.

Barb,
It was fun
having you in typing. Don't go spraining
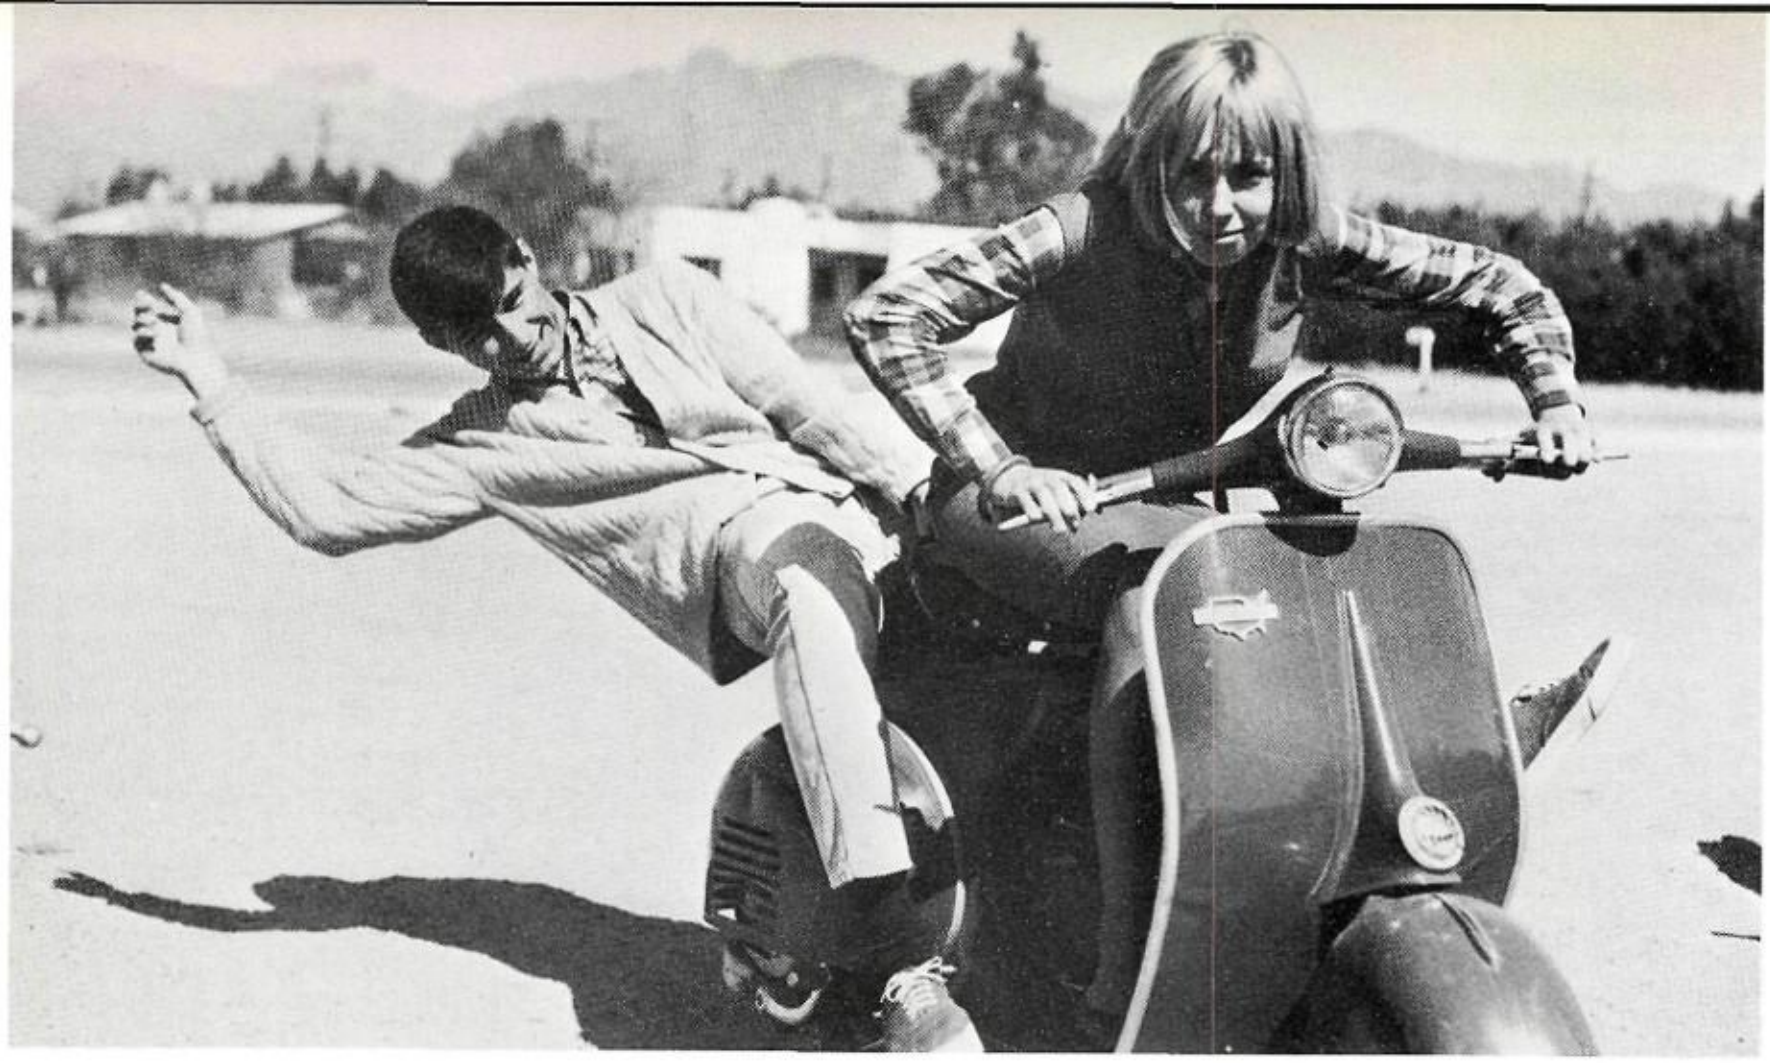
your arms, K?
Be Good.
Love ya,
Sandy
Aldrich

BRAINIEST . . .

In the quiet of the library, Francine LoMaglio and Pat McNamara, both members of the National Honor Society, attempt to get in a little extra reading.



WITTIEST . . .

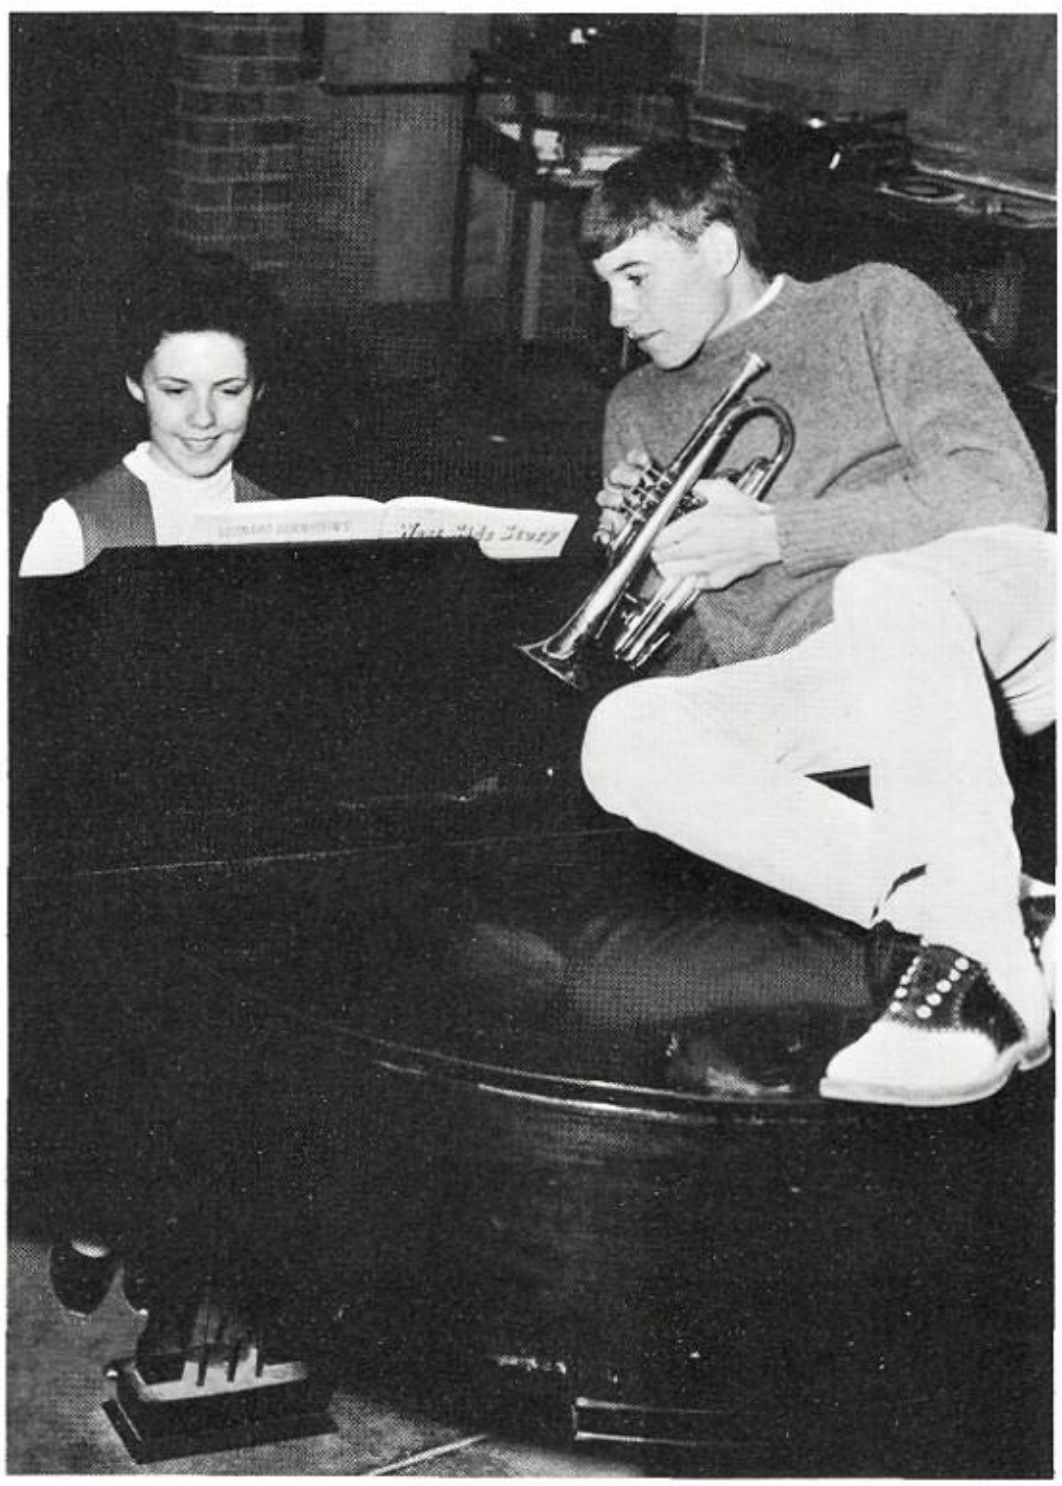
"Come on, gang, let's get witty." says Ann Cramblett, while Greg Jernigan answers, "Witless, maybe, but not witty."

BEST VOCALISTS . . .

Janice Weatherspoon and David Neff, both members of Amphi's vocal ensemble, put in long hours of practice for the music department's West Side Story.

BEST ACTORS . . .

"Help! Help!" screams the fair maiden, Jenny Weihl, as the heartless villain, David Waterman, carries her away. David and Jenny, both members of National Thespians, have taken part in many of Amphi's dramatic productions.



MUSIC MAESTROS . . .

"Are you sure that note was a B-flat?" inquires Terry Tucker, president of the band, as Patsy Webb accompanies him on the piano.

Junior Class Sponsors Prom; Plans Twirp Week Activities

With Lynn Lybeck as its president, the "Class of '66" undertook its traditional responsibility of planning and sponsoring the Junior-Senior Prom. The other major activity the Junior class took upon itself was the planning of Twirp Week, which was February 15-19.

Royalty from the Junior class included Mary Clark, A-Day attendant; and Savilla Higgins, Rodeo attendant. The FFA Sweetheart was also chosen from this class.

The Junior class also provided the delegates to Girls' and Boys' State.

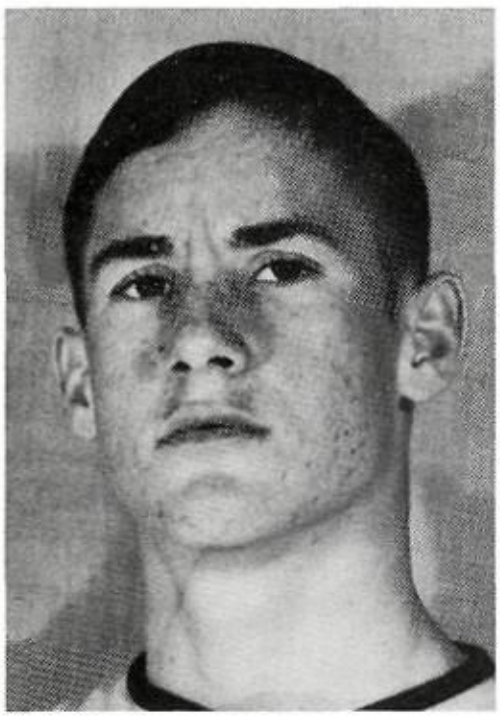
Sophomores Promote Candy Sale To Bolster Their Treasury



Steve Weatherspoon
President

With Steve Weatherspoon leading it, "Class of '67" accomplished many activities. Included among them was the making of blue and white pom-pons which were burned in the A-Day bonfire. Other activities included a candy sale and a picnic. Plans for a hayride were under consideration when this book went to press.

Linda Taylor and Karen Peterson brought honor to the class as they were selected as Homecoming and Rodeo attendants, respectively.

Barb!
Chick you're really sweet. Barb as I have never met anyone who is so concerned about the well being of others- you show it in your face and this is really an asset. Please stay as darling as you are.
Luff.
Nikki '65

Barb,
Remember our good times, because there might not be any more.
Always

Barb,
Best of luck in whatever you do and be good. We have only 1 year left and I wish you the best of luck in it.
Love,
Cheryl

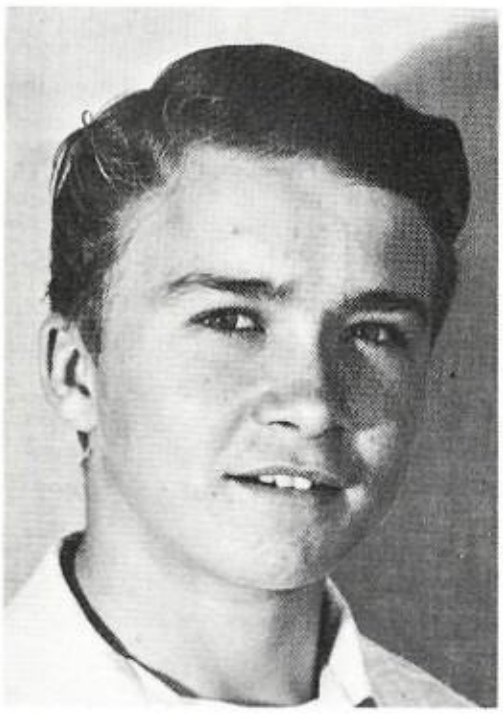
Freshmen Class Presents Cement Benches to School



Ronnie Catron
President

Leading a class consisting of 383 members, Ronnie Catron was the president of the "Class of '68." The other officers were Peggy Cornelius, vice president; Barbara Gregory, secretary; Marilyn Aufdermauer, treasurer; and Billie Baxter, Bill Donaldson, and Linda Giles, representatives.

The activities accomplished by the Freshmen class included a car wash, the Freshmen dance, the Freshmen class picnic, and the donating of cement benches to the school.

The "Class of '68" elected Julie Stough as their Homecoming attendant.

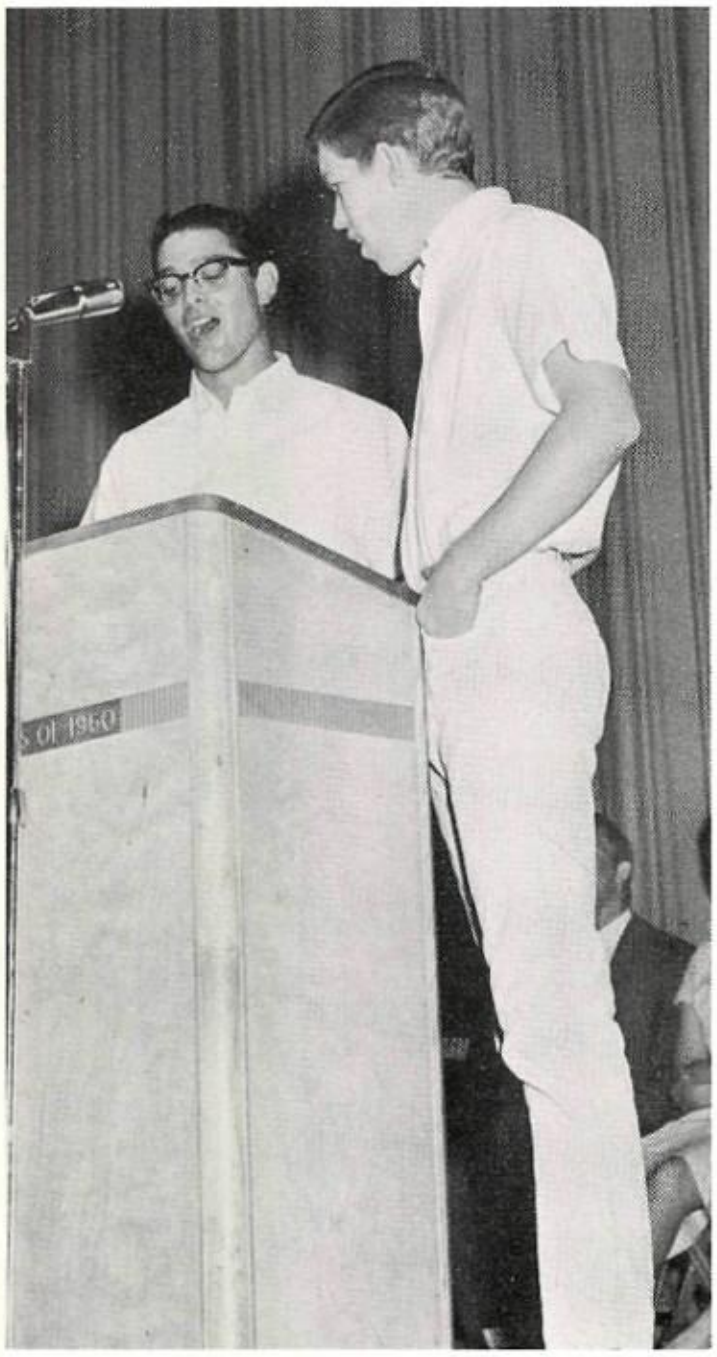
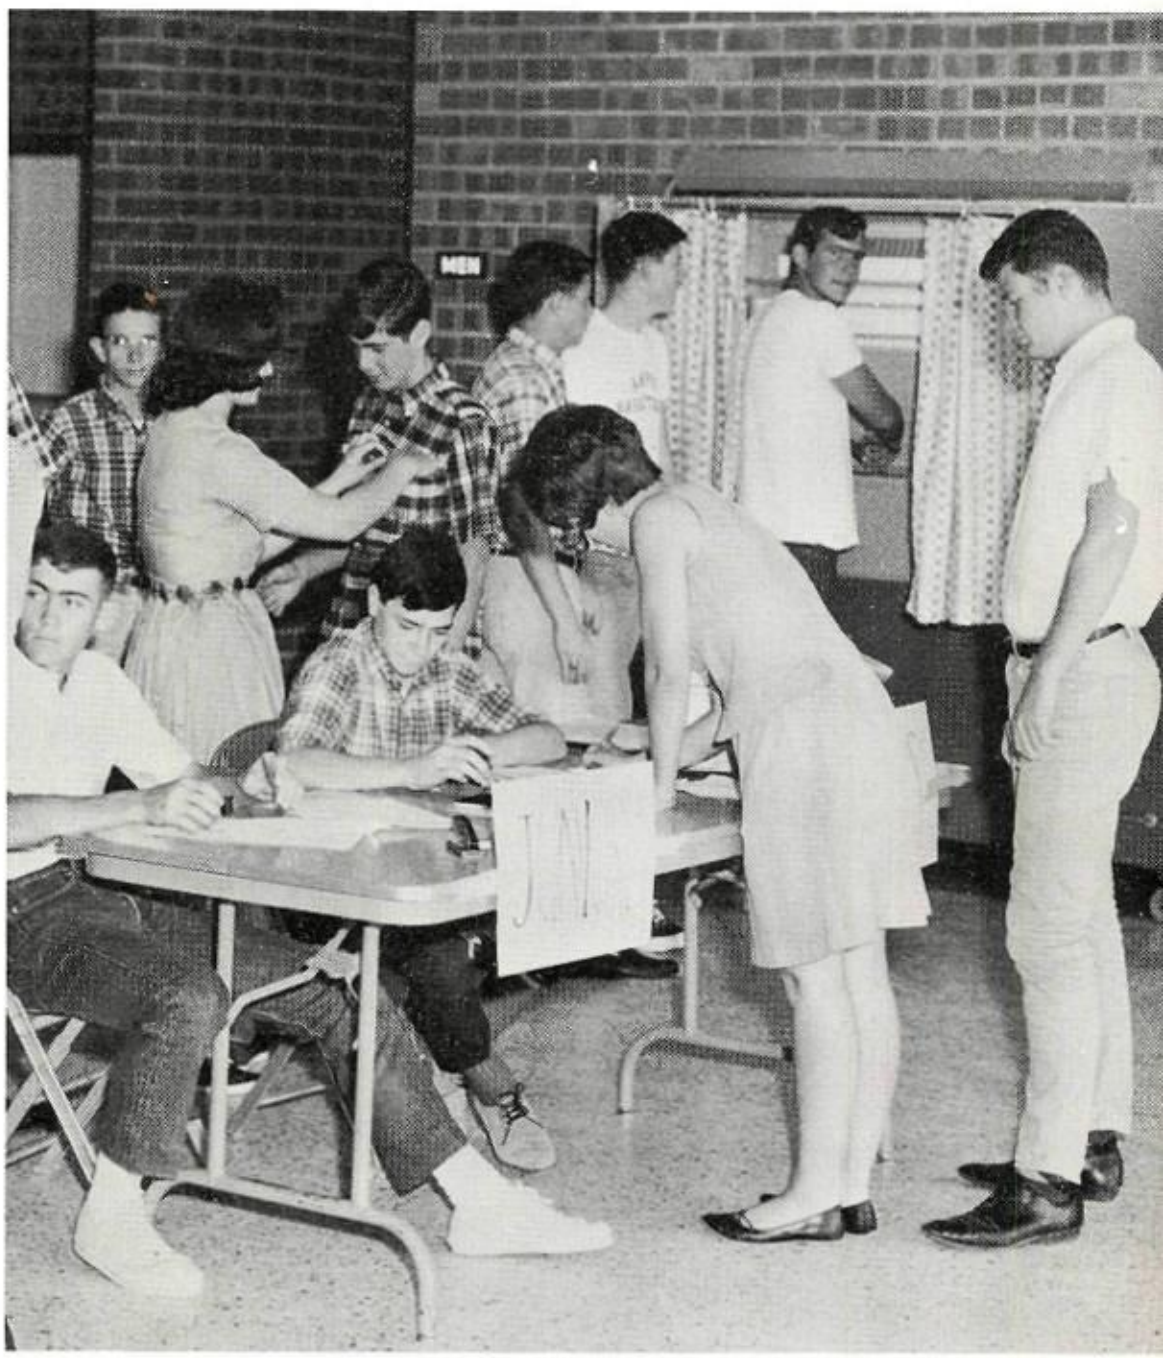
Election Excitement Seizes Amphitheater



Frank Rotolo and Dave Stott set to music the qualifications of their candidate, Karen Rucker, for student body secretary.



Politically-minded Panthers prepare to cast their votes at the election polls.

Carnival Raises Money for Foreign Student

The Pink Panther Club was one of many attractions at the carnival. The funds raised will help bring a foreign student to Amphi next year.

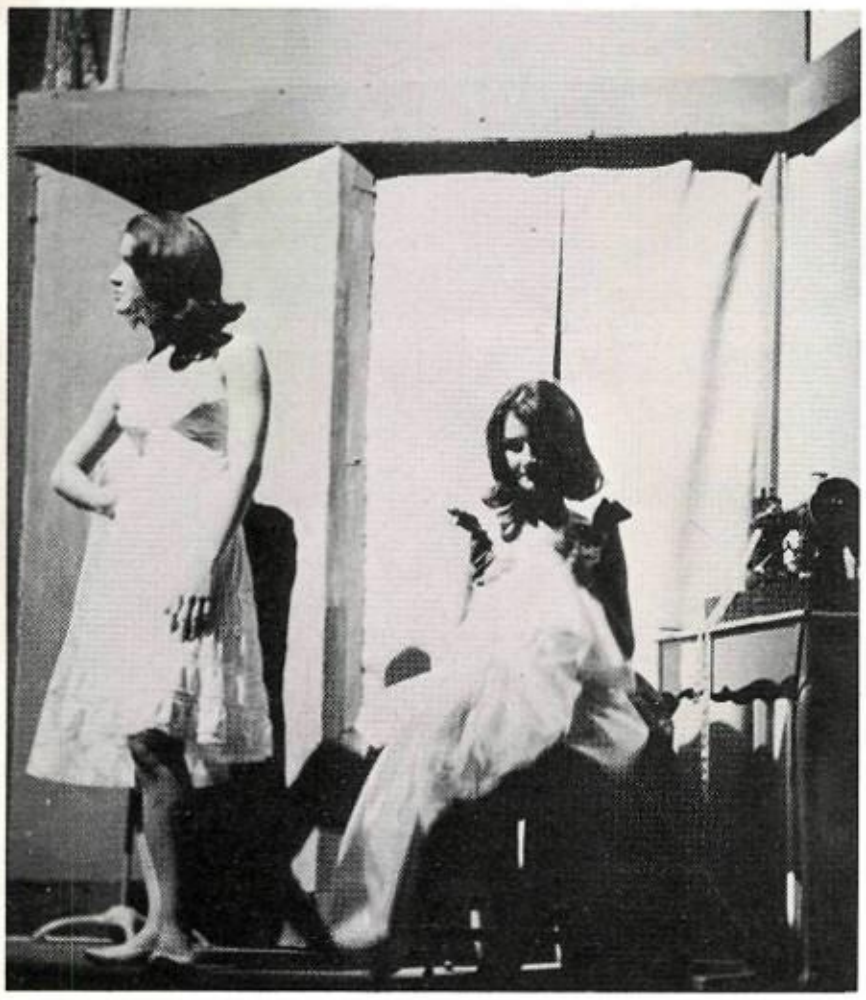
"Ash Alley 214" featured such folksingers as Amphi's own Suzanne Wilkinson.

Jon Nix, Jim Baldwin, and Greg Cox wait impatiently for their turns to see the great "Surf Den Swami."

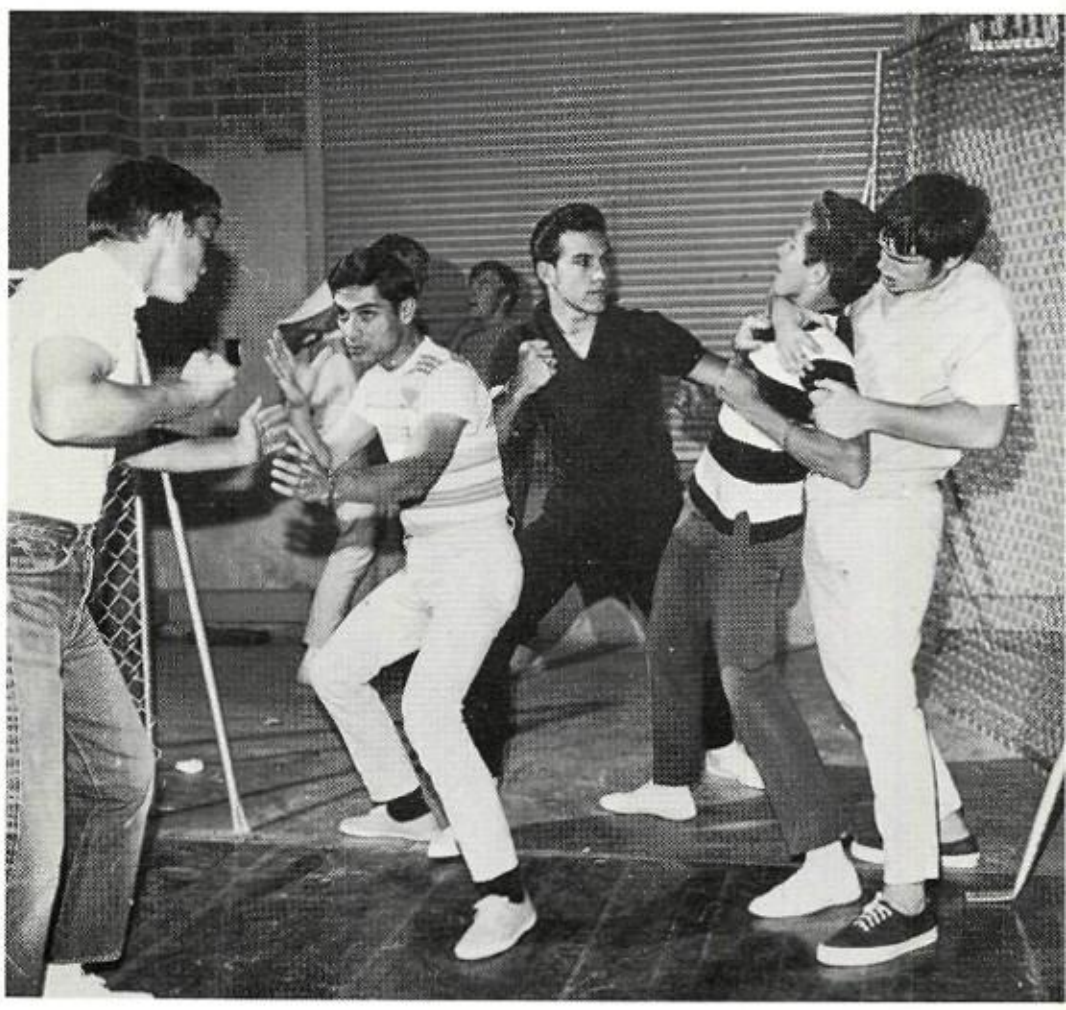
"West Side Story" Features Amphi Talent

"Gladhand" tries to promote goodwill between the rival gangs by urging the "Jets" and "Sharks" to join in the promenade.

"You go, Querida, I'll lock up."



In this scene, Anita refuses to lower the neckline on Maria's party dress.



This gangfight between the Sharks and Jets resulted in the violent deaths of "Riff" and "Bernardo."

PROM ROYALTY

Queen

Renate Himmelmann

Vivacious Renate was exuberant at being elected Prom Queen by the senior class. This busy foreign-exchange student is active in Student Council, Girls' League, and Chorus. Queen Renate reigned over Prom activities held on May 21 at the Pioneer Hotel.

"Carousel" Is Theme of Junior-Senior Prom

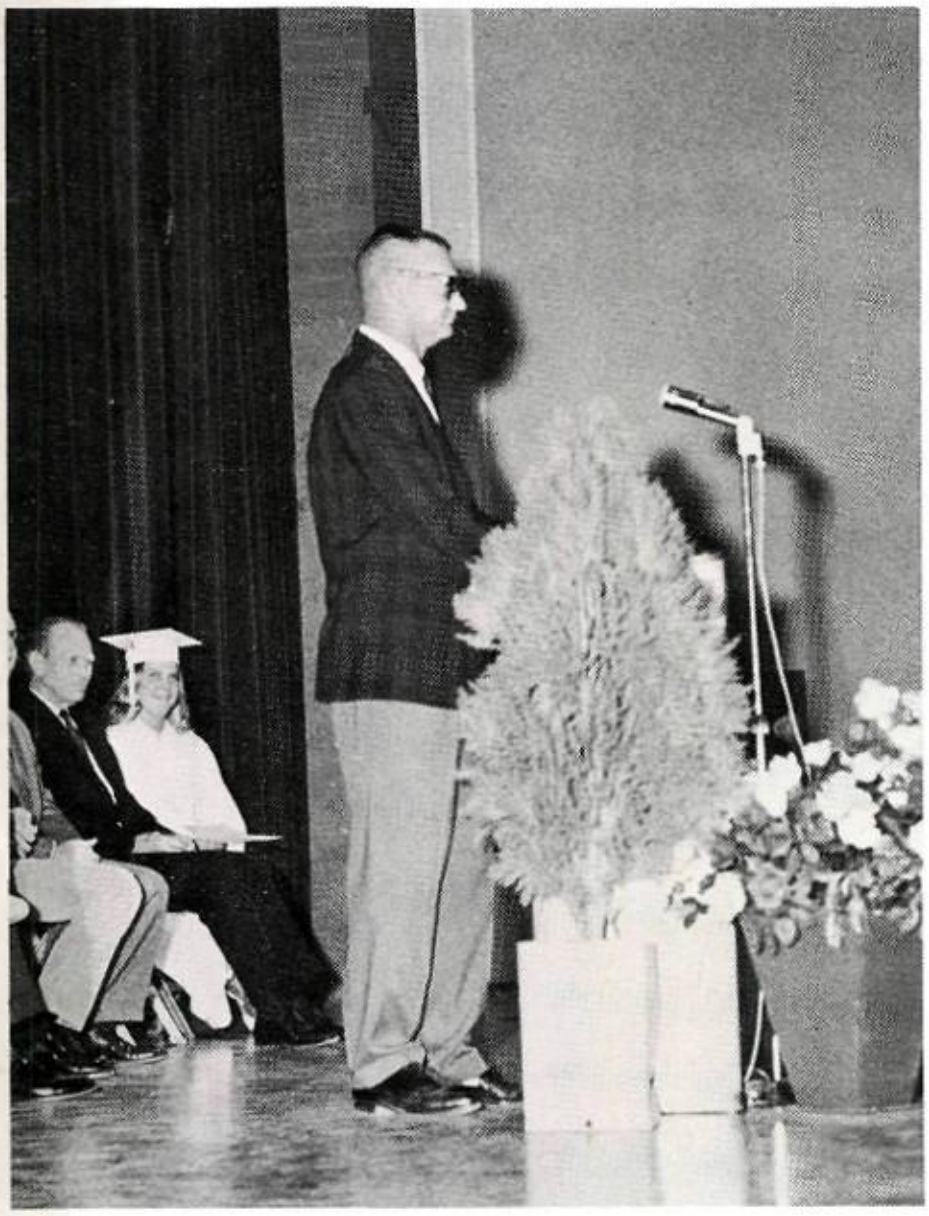
Janice Weatherspoon and the "Satelites" provide musical entertainment.

Our popular foreign-exchange student, Renate Himmelmann, was elected Prom Queen by the Senior Class.

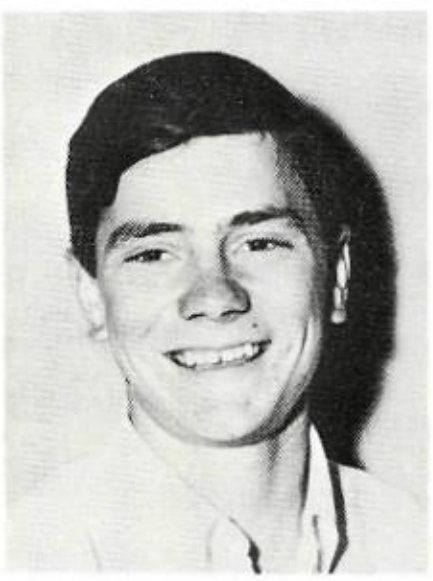
The poolside of the Pioneer Hotel proved to be a beautiful setting for the Junior-Senior Prom.

Seniors Honored for Four Years' Hard Work

Seniors wait impatiently in the glaring sun to receive their caps and gowns.



At the Honors' Assembly, Mr. Haugh expresses his gratitude at having the yearbook dedicated to him.

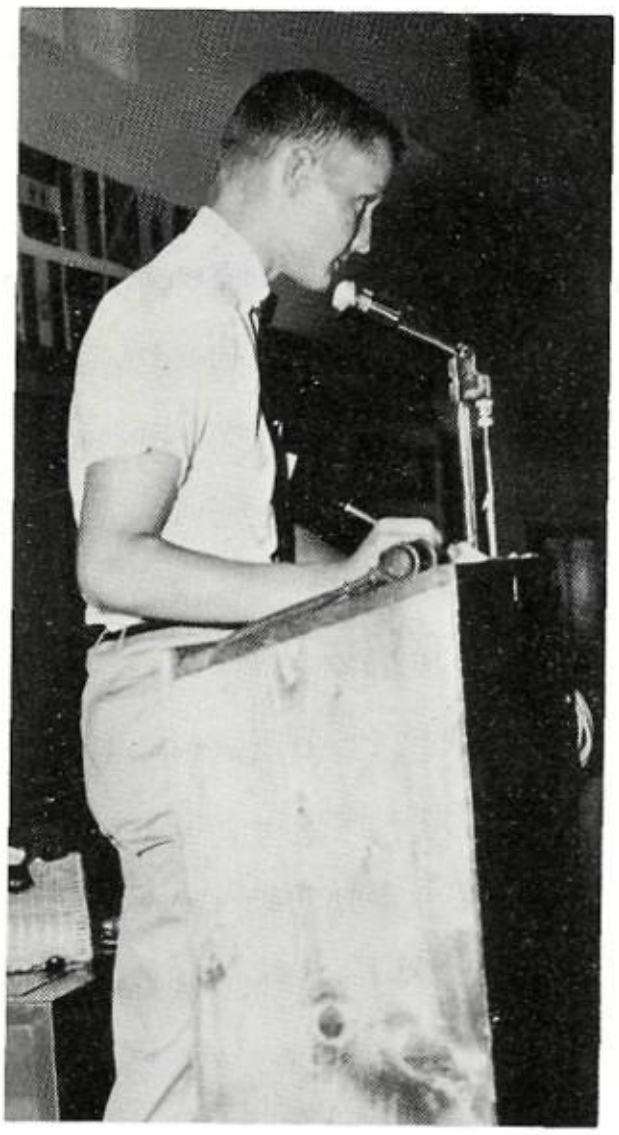


Valedictorian was Pat McNamara, who managed to maintain a 1.00 average throughout high school. Pat was a representative of the senior class in Student Council and Vice-president of National Honor Society.

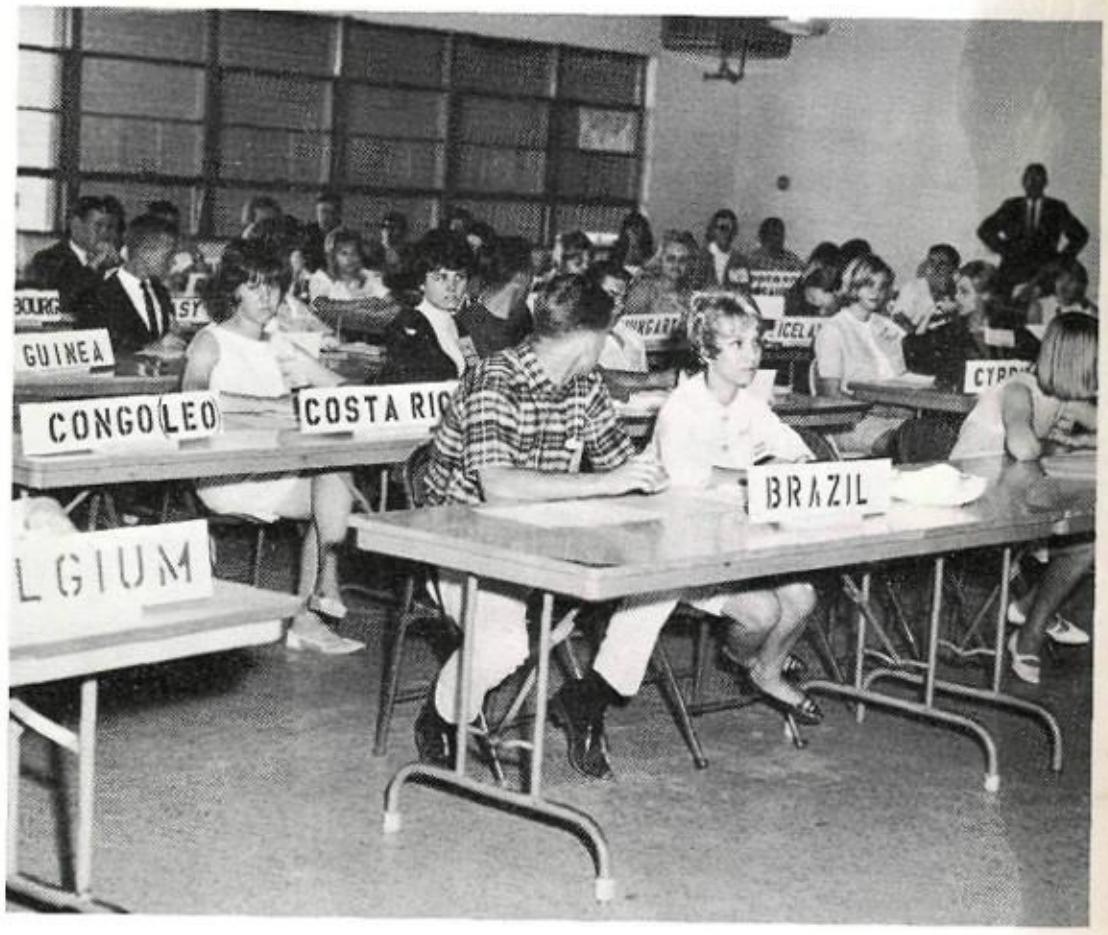
Salutatorian, David Neff, has maintained a grade average of 1.02 in high school. David is an active member of Honor Society and Double Quartet.

Leadership, scholarship, and citizenship were important factors in the choosing of Boys' and Girls' Staters. Girls' Staters are Savilla Higgins (alt.), Sandy Catron, Karen Rucker, Bette Andersen, Susan Snodgrass (alt.), and Linda Gray (alt.). Boys' Staters are Farrell Genung (alt.), Lynn Lybeck, Tony Helm, Mark Carlson, Jeff Fisher, Tom Briggs (alt.), Manfred Frannea (alt.), and Dan Fick (alt.).

Model U.N. Solves Urgent World Problems



Lynn Lybeck, executive assistant of the Model U.N., records votes on the resolution calling for the satisfaction of delinquent dues of the U.S.S.R.



Delegates to the Model United Nations carefully consider how they will cast their votes on important world affairs.
